Explanation (Use Additional Sheets of Attachments, if required)

The provisions of Assembly Bill No. 380 (AB380) would require the Nevada Gaming Control Board (Board) to adopt regulations for the establishment of a list of persons who have been suspended or banned from an interactive gaming system for cheating. Being unaware of what the regulation would specifically require, the Board cannot determine what costs it would incur with investigating and substantiating each alleged cheat for inclusion on the list, and processing appeals for persons who were wrongfully included on the list.
