Send them Your spirit with the love and guidance they need to work together, to listen to one another, and to find the common ground required to serve this state's citizens.

They have the difficult matters to address, ones that need serious thought and pose significant challenges. OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

November 12, 2025

THE HONORABLE STEVE YEAGER, SPEAKER OF THE NEVADA STATE ASSEMBLY, NEVADA STATE ASSEMBLY, 401 South Carson Street, Carson City, NV 89701

TO THE HONORABLE MEMBERS OF THE NEVADA STATE ASSEMBLY:

The State of Nevada and its citizens continue to demonstrate resilience in the face of significant challenges. Over the past several months, Nevada has weathered both a major cyberattack and the impacts of a federal government shutdown. Though the State is poised to emerge stronger after overcoming these hurdles, it is clear that new laws are needed to help Nevada respond more effectively to similar crises in the future. Moreover, given all that has transpired since June, certain issues from prior legislative sessions warrant renewed attention, as do several appropriations requiring further review.

Nevadans urgently need thoughtful, effective laws that enhance public safety, expand access to quality healthcare, create good-paying jobs, strengthen the state's cybersecurity infrastructure, and establish emergency safeguards for families in need during times of crisis. Additionally, it is essential to address and correct the unintended consequences of prior legislation to ensure that state policies continue to serve the best interests of all Nevadans.

Article 5, Section 9, Subsection 1 of the Nevada Constitution authorizes the Governor to convene a Special Session of the Nevada State Legislature by proclamation on extraordinary occasions. Accordingly, I have issued such a proclamation, calling the Legislature into Special session and identifying specific matters for its consideration.

Best wishes in your deliberations.

Respectfully Submitted,
JOE LOMBARDO
Governor of Nevada

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Assemblymember Jauregui moved that the reading of the Governor's proclamation convening the Legislature into a special session be dispensed with and the proclamation be entered into the Journal.

Motion carried.

ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

Rule No. 14. Maintenance of Working Environment; Procedure for Filing, Investigating and Taking Remedial Action on Complaints.

1. The Legislature hereby declares that it is the policy of the Legislature to prohibit any conduct, whether intentional or unintentional, which results in sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment based upon any other protected category. The Legislature intends to maintain a working environment which is free from sexual harassment and other unlawful harassment. Each Legislator is responsible to conduct himself or herself in a manner which will ensure that others are able to work in such an environment.

2. In accordance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e et seq., for the purposes of this Rule, "sexual harassment" means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

(a) Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person's employment;

(b) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the person; or

(c) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

3. Each Legislator must exercise his or her own good judgment to avoid engaging in conduct that may be perceived by others as sexual harassment. The following noninclusive list provides illustrations of conduct that the Legislature deems to be inappropriate:

(a) Verbal conduct such as epithets, derogatory comments, slurs or unwanted sexual advances, invitations or comments;

(b) Visual conduct such as derogatory posters, photography, cartoons, drawings or gestures;

(c) Physical conduct such as unwanted touching, blocking normal movement or interfering with the work directed at a person because of his or her sex; and

(d) Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests to keep a person's job or avoid some other loss, and offers of employment benefits in return for sexual favors.

4. In addition to other prohibited conduct, a complaint may be brought pursuant to this Rule for engaging in conduct prohibited by Rule No. 37 of the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for the 83rd Session of the Legislature when the prohibited conduct is based on or because of the gender or other protected category of the person.

5. Retaliation against a person for engaging in protected activity is prohibited. Retaliation occurs when an adverse action is taken against a person which is reasonably likely to deter the person from engaging in the protected activity. Protected activity includes, without limitation:

(a) Opposing conduct that the person reasonably believes constitutes sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment;

(b) Filing a complaint about the conduct; or

(c) Testifying, assisting or participating in any manner in an investigation or other proceeding related to a complaint of sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment.

(a) The Speaker of the Assembly;

(b) The Majority Leader of the Senate;

(c) The Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, if the complaint involves the conduct of the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate; or

(d) The reporting system established pursuant to subsection 11.

↪ The complaint must include the details of the incident or incidents, the names of the persons involved and the names of any witnesses. Unless the Legislative Counsel is the subject of the complaint, the Legislative Counsel must be informed upon receipt of a complaint.

7. The Speaker of the Assembly, the Majority Leader of the Senate or the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, as appropriate, shall cause a discreet and impartial investigation to be conducted and may, when deemed necessary and appropriate, assign the complaint to a committee consisting of Legislators of the appropriate House.

8. If the investigation reveals that sexual harassment, other unlawful harassment, retaliation or other conduct in violation of this policy has occurred, appropriate disciplinary or remedial action, or both will be taken. The appropriate persons will be informed when any such action is taken. The Legislature will also take any action necessary to deter any future harassment.

9. The Legislature encourages a Legislator to report any incident of sexual harassment, other unlawful harassment, retaliation or other conduct inconsistent with this policy immediately so that the complaint can be quickly and fairly resolved.

10. All Legislators are responsible for adhering to the provisions of this policy. The prohibitions against engaging in sexual harassment and other unlawful harassment which are set forth in this Rule apply to employees, Legislators, lobbyists, vendors, contractors, customers and any other visitors to the Legislature.

11. The Legislative Counsel shall establish a reporting system which allows a person to submit a complaint of a violation of this Rule with or without identifying himself or herself.
