EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [~~omitted material~~] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to taxes on retail sales; providing for the submission to the voters of the question whether the Sales and Use Tax Act of 1955 should be amended to provide an exemption from the tax for funeral supplies; contingently creating the same exemption from certain analogous taxes; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. At the general election on November 7, 2000, a proposal must be submitted to the registered voters of this state to amend the Sales and Use Tax Act, which was enacted by the 47th session of the legislature of the State of Nevada and approved by the governor in 1955, and subsequently approved by the people of this state at the general election held on November 6, 1956.

Sec. 2. At the time and in the manner provided by law, the secretary of state shall transmit the proposed act to the several county clerks, and the county clerks shall cause it to be published and posted as provided by law.

Sec. 3. The proclamation and notice to the voters given by the county clerks pursuant to law must be in substantially the following form:

Notice is hereby given that at the general election on November 7, 2000, a question will appear on the ballot for the adoption or rejection by the registered voters of the state of the following proposed act:

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An Act to provide revenue for the State of Nevada; providing for sales and use taxes; providing for the manner of collection; defining certain terms; providing penalties for violation, and other matters properly relating thereto." approved March 29, 1955, as amended.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA
DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The above-entitled act, being chapter 397, Statutes of Nevada 1955, at page 762, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be designated as section 56.3, immediately following section 56.2, to read as follows:

Sec. 56.3. 1. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this act the gross receipts from the sale and the storage, use or other consumption of funeral supplies.

2. As used in this section, "funeral supplies" means any personal property, equipment, merchandise or supplies sold for use in, or for the performance of, any services connected with the burial, interment, entombment, inurnment or other final disposition of the remains of a deceased person. The term does not include a grave plot, an interest in land of a cemetery or space in a mausoleum, vault, crypt or columbarium used for interment, entombment or inurnment.

Sec. 2. This act becomes effective on January 1, 2001.

Sec. 4. The ballot page assemblies and the paper ballots to be used in voting on the question must present the question in substantially the following form:

Shall the Sales and Use Tax Act of 1955 be amended to provide an exemption from the taxes imposed by this act on the gross receipts from the sale and the storage, use or other consumption of funeral supplies?

Yes ☐ No ☐

Sec. 5. The explanation of the question which must appear on each paper ballot and sample ballot and in every publication and posting of notice of the question must be in substantially the following form:

(Explanation of Question)

The proposed amendment to the Sales and Use Tax Act of 1955 would exempt from the taxes imposed by this act the gross receipts from the sale and storage, use or other consumption of funeral supplies. If this proposal is adopted, the legislature has provided that the Local School Support Tax Law and the City-County Relief Tax Law will be amended to provide the same exemption.

Sec. 6. If a majority of the votes cast on the question is yes, the amendment to the Sales and Use Tax Act of 1955 becomes effective on January 1, 2001. If less than a majority of votes cast on the question is yes, the question fails and the amendment to the Sales and Use Tax Act of 1955 does not become effective.

Sec. 7. All general election laws not inconsistent with this act are applicable.

Sec. 8. Any informalities, omissions or defects in the content or making of the publications, proclamations or notices provided for in this act and by the general election laws under which this election is held must be so construed as not to invalidate the adoption of the act by a majority of the registered voters voting on the question if it can be ascertained with reasonable certainty from the official returns transmitted to the office of the secretary of state whether the proposed amendment was adopted by a majority of those registered voters.

Sec. 9. Chapter 374 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this chapter the gross receipts from the sale and the storage, use or other consumption of funeral supplies.

2. As used in this section, "funeral supplies" means any personal property, equipment, merchandise or supplies sold for use in, or for the performance of, any services connected with the burial, interment, entombment, inurnment or other final disposition of the remains of a deceased person. The term does not include a grave plot, an interest in land of a cemetery or space in a mausoleum, vault, crypt or columbarium used for interment, entombment or inurnment.

Sec. 10. Section 9 of this act becomes effective on January 1, 2001, only if the proposal submitted pursuant to sections 1 to 5, inclusive, of this act is approved by the voters at the general election on November 7, 2000.
