484.3792 1. A person who violates the provisions of NRS 484.379:

14 unless the court finds that extenuating circumstances exist; and

15 (4) May order him to attend a program of treatment for the abuse of 16 alcohol or drugs pursuant to the provisions of NRS 484.37945.

17 A person who willfully fails or refuses to complete successfully a term of 18 residential confinement or a program of treatment ordered pursuant to this 19 paragraph is guilty of a misdemeanor.

20 (c) For a third or subsequent offense within 7 years, is guilty of a
21 category B felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison 22 for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not 23 more than 6 years, and shall be further punished by a fine of not less than 24 $2,000 nor more than $5,000. An offender so imprisoned must, insofar as 25 practicable, be segregated from offenders whose crimes were violent and,
26 insofar as practicable, be assigned to an institution or facility of minimum 27 security.

28 2. An offense that occurred within 7 years immediately preceding the 29 date of the principal offense or after the principal offense constitutes a prior 30 offense for the purposes of this section when evidenced by a conviction,
31 without regard to the sequence of the offenses and convictions. The facts 32 concerning a prior offense must be alleged in the complaint, indictment or 33 information, must not be read to the jury or proved at trial but must be 34 proved at the time of sentencing and, if the principal offense is alleged to 35 be a felony, must also be shown at the preliminary examination or 36 presented to the grand jury.

38 not be released on probation, and a sentence imposed for violating those 39 provisions must not be suspended except, as provided in NRS 4.373, 5.055, 40 484.37937 and 484.3794, that portion of the sentence imposed that exceeds

1 the mandatory minimum. A prosecuting attorney shall not dismiss a charge
2 of violating the provisions of NRS 484.379 in exchange for a plea of guilty,
3 guilty but mentally ill or nolo contendere to a lesser charge or for any other 4 reason unless he knows or it is obvious that the charge is not supported by 5 probable cause or cannot be proved at the time of trial.

6 4. A term of confinement imposed pursuant to the provisions of this 7 section may be served intermittently at the discretion of the judge or justice 8 of the peace, except that a person who is convicted of a second or 9 subsequent offense within 7 years must be confined for at least one segment
10 of not less than 48 consecutive hours. This discretion must be exercised 11 after considering all the circumstances surrounding the offense, and the 12 family and employment of the offender, but any sentence of 30 days or less 13 must be served within 6 months after the date of conviction or, if the 14 offender was sentenced pursuant to NRS 484.37937 or 484.3794 and the 15 suspension of his sentence was revoked, within 6 months after the date of 16 revocation. Any time for which the offender is confined must consist of not 17 less than 24 consecutive hours.

18 5. Jail sentences simultaneously imposed pursuant to this section and 19 NRS 483.560 or 485.330 must run consecutively.

20 6. If the person who violated the provisions of NRS 484.379 possesses 21 a driver's license issued by a state other than the State of Nevada and does 22 not reside in the State of Nevada, in carrying out the provisions of 23 subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 1, the court shall:

24 (a) Order the person to pay tuition for and submit evidence of 25 completion of an educational course on the abuse of alcohol and controlled 26 substances approved by a governmental agency of the state of his residence 27 within the time specified in the order; or

28 (b) Order him to complete an educational course by correspondence on 29 the abuse of alcohol and controlled substances approved by the department
30 within the time specified in the order, 31 and the court shall notify the department if the person fails to complete the 32 assigned course within the specified time.

33 7. If the defendant was transporting a person who is less than 15 years 34 of age in the motor vehicle at the time of the violation, the court shall 35 consider that fact as an aggravating factor in determining the sentence of 36 the defendant.

37 8. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, 38 "offense" means a violation of NRS 484.379 or 484.3795 or a homicide 39 resulting from the driving of a vehicle while under the influence of 40 intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or the violation of a law of 41 any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

42 Sec. 3. The amendatory provisions of this act do not apply to offenses
43 committed before the effective date of this act.

1 Sec. 4. Section 2 of this act becomes effective at 12:01 a.m. on 2 October 1, 1999.
