 - Sec. 2. NRS 446.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:
- 446.030 1. "Food handler" means any person employed in or operating a food establishment, whether that person is an employer, employee or [independent individual] other natural person, who handles, stores, transports, prepares, manufactures, serves or sells food, or who comes in contact with eating or cooking utensils or other equipment used in the handling, preparation, manufacture, service [1] or sale of food.
- 2. The term does not include a person who only handles, stores, transports, sells or otherwise comes in contact with food that is permanently sealed or packaged for sale directly to the consumer and who, if the food is potentially hazardous food, handles the food only occasionally or incidentally outside the normal and usual course and scope of his responsibilities or employment.
- 3. As used in this section, "potentially hazardous food" has the meaning ascribed to it in subpart 1-201 of the 1999 edition of the Food Code published by the Food and Drug Administration of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, unless the administrator of the health division of the department of human resources has adopted a later edition of the Food Code for this purpose.
 - Sec. 3. NRS 446.870 is hereby amended to read as follows:
- 446.870 1. Except as otherwise provided in [subsection 2,] this section, it is unlawful for any person to operate a food establishment unless he possesses a valid permit issued to him by the health authority.
- 2. The health authority may exempt a food establishment from the provisions of this chapter if the health authority determines that the food which is sold, offered or displayed for sale, or served at the establishment does not constitute a potential or actual hazard to the public health.
- 3. Food that is prepared in a private home and given away free of charge or consideration of any kind is exempt from the provisions of this chapter, unless it is given to a food establishment.
- 4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, food that is prepared in a private home must not be sold, or offered or displayed for sale or for compensation or contractual consideration of any kind, unless the person preparing the food possesses a valid permit issued to him by the health authority for that purpose.

5. A religious, charitable or other nonprofit organization may, without possessing a permit from the health authority, sell food occasionally to raise money, whether or not the food was prepared in a private home, if the sale occurs on the premises of the organization. If the sale is to occur off the premises of the organization, a permit from the health authority is required unless an exemption is granted pursuant to subsection 2.

Sec. 4. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2001.
