AN ACT relating to gaming; requiring the Gaming Policy Committee to study whether the definition of “resort hotel” should be extended to include certain time-share projects; requiring the Committee to study certain other issues; requiring the Committee to report the results of its studies to the Legislature; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

- 1 Section 1. 1. The Gaming Policy Committee shall conduct a study
2 to review:
3 (a) Whether the definition of “resort hotel” in NRS 463.01865 should be 4 extended to time-share projects to allow a qualifying time-share project to 5 obtain a nonrestricted license.
6 (b) Other major issues associated with gaming in this state, including
7 the expansion of gaming over the Internet, increased competition with 8 Indian tribes that operate gaming establishments and problem gambling.
9 2. The Gaming Policy Committee shall report the results of the study
10 conducted pursuant to subsection 1 and any recommendations for 11 legislation to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau on or before
12 February 1, 2003, for transmittal to the 72nd session of the Nevada
13 Legislature.
