The Honorable David Goldwater, Chair
And Members of the House
Committee on Commerce and Labor
State Legislature
Reno, Nevada

Dear Mr. Chairman and Members of the Committee:

I have had numerous recent discussions with Mr. Steve Kost and members of the Far West Equipment Dealers Association about AB 369. Mr. Kost has presented some proposed amendments to this bill. We still have some minor concerns with the bill that we will continue to discuss with Mr. Kost. In general, though, with the adoption of those amendments as submitted by Mr. Kost, Deere & Company does not object to AB 369.

We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to let the committee know where we stand on this bill, and thank the proponents for the chance to have input.

I'm sorry that we cannot have a representative present and the initial hearing on the legislation.

Sincerely,

Jerry D. Parkin

Dealer Protection Laws

Dealer Protection Laws: The North American Equipment Dealers Association offers this compilation of dealer protection laws to help independent retail dealers learn more about the various state and provincial laws that apply to their businesses.

While NAEDA considers these laws to be current, it does not warrant or guarantee their accuracy. They are presented for informational purposes only. NAEDA is under no obligation to update and/or interpret these laws.

Dealers with questions about these laws are encouraged to call the state, regional or provincial associations to which they belong, call the NAEDA Legal Assistance Program* at 816/421-4460 (ask for Jennifer or Rebecca), or send an e-mail to naedalegal@sblsg.com. All others with questions also are encouraged to consult with counsel.

* The NAEDA Legal Assistance Program is a service provided to retail equipment dealers who are paid members of NAEDA affiliated associations. The program is operated by Seigfreid, Bingham, Levy, Selzer & Gee, Kansas City, Mo.
