

DISCLAIMER

Electronic versions of the exhibits in these minutes may not be complete.

This information is supplied as an informational service only and should not be relied upon as an official record.

Original exhibits are on file at the Legislative Counsel Bureau Research Library in Carson City.

Contact the Library at (775) 684-6827 or library@lcb.state.nv.us.

Informed Consent Litigation

Protection of the consumer by information before litigation.

Improvement in client/attorney relationship

Decreases the "surprise" factor of unintended consequences

Improvement in timeliness of resolution

Potential to decrease court costs via alternative arbitration options

Gets the problem fixed

Improves reputation of the legal profession

Common sense and common courtesy

Endorsement of quality legal representation

Supreme Court Adopts Additional Rules of Conduct

Nonrestrictive language as the justices know best

Not penalty but an expectation

Encourage lay language and clearly define issues for client in BOLD and not fine print

Opt in and opt out clarifications for potential clients readily recognizable

Notification of contract for representation specifics to the client