Fantasy Diplomas provides replacement and novelty transcripts and diplomas at the most competitive rates. Fantasy Diplomas are not intended to be used for unlawful misrepresentation or fraudulent purposes.

Fake College Degrees and Diplomas

Fake college degrees or diplomas are suitable for a range of novelty uses. One of their more interesting uses is to hang up in your office. It is possible to order these with any degrees listed on them, so for example if you know one particular colleague received a degree in a particular, well heck, you could easily get a diploma for the same subject.

Fake college degrees or diplomas are also very useful - allowing you to not only receive preferential treatment, but to legally be able to use the title 'Dr' or terms such as Ph.D. after your name.

There are two main types of fake college degrees:

- 1) Those that are truly fake
- 2) Those that are downright copies of existing universities
- 3) Those that are awarded from distance learning institutions

GET A COLLEGE DEGREE

Looking at each of these points in further detail:

1) Fake college degrees and diplomas are often those from completely made up universities that do not exist. For example, 'Mumma Joes Bootslapping University' would be a good example. These types of degrees are intended for short term humor effect. They are never going to convince someone that you actually achieved your degree, rather are a source of brief amusement.

2) The second type of fake college degrees and diplomas are copies from existing universities. These are the exceptionally dangerous type, and we strongly recommend you stay away from these type. These types of fake degrees are illegal - in effect if you were to source a degree which says you graduated from say Stanford University, but you never did, it is a good way to get yourself in a lot of hot water very quickly. This is impersonation of the highest order, and while it may give you a sense of honor to display a fake Stanford University degree on your office wall, it can cause difficulties.

3) The third type is a much more acceptable type. These degrees are awarded from legitimate, verifiable universities. This means, that if you purchase one of these degrees, anyone who decides to go to the trouble of checking up on it will find that it is a legal qualification you have obtained. Plus, the bonus is you get to call yourself 'Dr' or 'Ph.D.' - entirely legally.
