Title: Restoration of civil rights with right to bear arms.

1. In any case where a person convicted of a crime in the State of Nevada which resulted in the loss of any civil rights, and at the time of the petition is not serving a sentence of imprisonment or on parole or probation, the person may petition the court of original jurisdiction requesting restoration of his civil rights and release from all penalties and disabilities which resulted from the offense or crime of which he was convicted.
2. In restoring a persons civil rights, the court will determine whether the restoration includes the right to bear arms.
3. If the court does not restore the person's civil rights or restores them only in part, it will set a reasonable period of time the person must wait before making another petition to the court.
4. A petition filed pursuant to subsection 1 must be accompanied by a current, verified record of the petitioner's criminal history received from:
  - (a) the central repository for Nevada records of criminal history; and
  - (b) the local law enforcement agency of the city or county in which the conviction was entered.
