TITLE 5
JUVENILE JUSTICE

CHAPTER 62A
GENERAL PROVISIONS

New Chapter 62A Sec. 1. Directory language that will not be codified.

NRS 62.020 Sec. 2. Definitions

As requested by Judge Steel, certain subhead and section definitions of chapter 62 and chapter 210 have become title 5 definitions.

As requested by Judge Steel, the language of definitions has been added for those terms currently referring to other sections of NRS.

Some existing definitions have been omitted if the terms are no longer used in title 5 or if a definition is unnecessary because the term is always modified for clarity. For example:

“Administrator” is no longer defined because it is always modified as “Administrator of the Division of Child and Family Services.”

“Court” is no longer defined because it is always modified as “juvenile court” or “district court,” etc., unless it refers to all courts.

“Judge” is no longer defined because it is always modified as “judge of the juvenile court” or “district judge.”

“Superintendent” is no longer defined because it is always modified as “superintendent of a county school district” or “superintendent of a facility.”

NRS 62.510 Sec. 3. “Central Repository” defined.

NRS 62.020 Sec. 4. “Child” defined.

Judge Steel had requested to add language giving the juvenile court jurisdiction over a juvenile sex offender who is 21 or older pursuant to NRS 62.590. Pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 62.570, the juvenile court already has jurisdiction over anyone subject to the provisions of 62.500 to 62.600, inclusive. However, for the sake of clarity, the definition of “child” has been amended to include a reference to juvenile sex offenders in paragraph (c) of subsection 1.
