Proposed Amendment to A.B. 160

Amend the bill by adding a new section amending NRS 33.060 as follows:

Sec. 1. NRS 33.060 is hereby amended to read as follows:

33.060 1. The court shall transmit, by the end of the next business day after the order is issued, a copy of the temporary or extended order to the appropriate law enforcement agency which has jurisdiction over the residence, school, child care facility or other provider of child care, or place of employment of the applicant or the minor child.

2. The court shall order the appropriate law enforcement agency to serve, without charge, the adverse party personally with the temporary order and to file with or mail to the clerk of the court proof of service by the end of the next business day after service is made. Service of an application for an extended order and the notice of hearing thereon must be served upon the adverse party ~~[pursuant]~~ :

(a) Pursuant to the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure ~~[1]~~ ; or

(b) In the manner provided in section 2 of this act.

3. A law enforcement agency shall enforce a temporary or extended order without regard to the county in which the order was issued.

4. The clerk of the court shall issue, without fee, a copy of the temporary or extended order to the applicant and the adverse party.

Amend the bill by adding three new sections to chapter 33 of NRS to read as follows:

“Sec. 2. 1. If the current address where the adverse party resides is unknown and the law enforcement agency has made at least 2 attempts to personally serve the adverse party at his current place of employment, the law enforcement agency or a person designated by the law enforcement agency may serve the adverse party by:

(a) Delivering a copy of the application for an extended order, the notice of hearing thereon and a copy of the temporary order to the current place of employment of the adverse party; and

(b) Thereafter, mailing a copy of the application for an extended order, the notice of hearing thereon and a copy of the temporary order to the adverse party at his current place of employment.

2. Delivery pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 1 must be made by leaving a copy of the documents specified with the person in apparent charge at the place of employment, the department of human resources or other similar person. Such a person shall accept the documents or identify the appropriate person to whom to deliver such documents.

3. The person to whom the documents are delivered pursuant to subsection 2, shall make a reasonable effort to deliver the documents to the adverse party.

4. After delivering the documents to the current place of employment, a copy of the documents must be mailed to the adverse party by first class mail to the current place of employment of the adverse party in care of the employer.

5. The adverse party shall be deemed to be served 10 days after the documents are mailed to the adverse party.

6. Upon completion of service pursuant to this section, the law enforcement agency or the person designated by the law enforcement agency which served the adverse party in the manner set forth in this section shall file with or mail to the clerk of the court proof of service in this manner.
