EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to criminal procedure; increasing the presumptive limits for attorneys' fees in first degree murder cases; increasing the presumptive limits for ancillary expenses in criminal proceedings; requiring the court to appoint certain persons to assist in the defense of a person in certain cases involving murder of the first degree; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

- 1 Section 1. NRS 7.125 is hereby amended to read as follows:
2 7.125 1. Except as limited by subsections 2, 3 and 4, an 3 attorney , other than a public defender , who is appointed by a 4 magistrate or a district court to represent or defend a defendant at 5 any stage of the criminal proceedings from the defendant's initial 6 appearance before the magistrate or the district court through the 7 appeal, if any, is entitled to receive a fee for court appearances and 8 other time reasonably spent on the matter to which the appointment

* A B 1 7 R 2 *

1 is made ~~[, $75]~~ of $125 per hour in cases in which the death
2 penalty is sought and $100 per hour ~~[,]~~ in all other cases. Except 3 for cases in which the most serious crime is a felony punishable by 4 death or by imprisonment for life with or without possibility of 5 parole, this subsection does not preclude a governmental entity from 6 contracting with a private attorney who agrees to provide such 7 services for a lesser rate of compensation.

8 2. ~~[The]~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, the 9 total fee for each attorney in any matter regardless of the number of 10 offenses charged or ancillary matters pursued must not exceed:

11 (a) If the most serious crime is a felony punishable by death or 12 by imprisonment for life with or without possibility of parole,
13 ~~[$12,000;]~~ $20,000;

14 (b) If the most serious crime is a felony other than a felony
15 included in paragraph (a) or is a gross misdemeanor, $2,500;

16 (c) If the most serious crime is a misdemeanor, $750;

17 (d) For an appeal of one or more misdemeanor convictions, 18 $750; or

19 (e) For an appeal of one or more gross misdemeanor or felony
20 convictions, $2,500.

21 3. ~~[An]~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, an 22 attorney appointed by a district court to represent an indigent
23 petitioner for a writ of habeas corpus or other postconviction relief,
24 if the petitioner is imprisoned pursuant to a judgment of conviction 25 of a gross misdemeanor or felony, is entitled to be paid a fee not to 26 exceed $750.

27 4. If the appointing court because of:

28 (a) The complexity of a case or the number of its factual or legal 29 issues;

30 (b) The severity of the offense;

31 (c) The time necessary to provide an adequate defense; or

32 (d) Other special circumstances,

33 deems it appropriate to grant a fee in excess of the applicable
34 maximum, the payment must be made, but only if the court in which 35 the representation was rendered certifies that the amount of the 36 excess payment is both reasonable and necessary and the payment is 37 approved by the presiding judge of the judicial district in which the 38 attorney was appointed, or if there is no such presiding judge or if 39 he presided over the court in which the representation was rendered, 40 then by the district judge who holds seniority in years of service in 41 office.

42 5. The magistrate, the district court or the Supreme Court may, 43 in the interests of justice, substitute one appointed attorney for 44 another at any stage of the proceedings, but the total amount of fees 45 granted to all appointed attorneys must not exceed those allowable if

1 but one attorney represented or defended the defendant at all stages
2 of the criminal proceeding.

3 Sec. 2. NRS 7.135 is hereby amended to read as follows:

4 7.135 The attorney appointed by a magistrate or district court
5 to represent a defendant is entitled, in addition to the fee provided
6 by NRS 7.125 for his services, to be reimbursed for expenses
7 reasonably incurred by him in representing the defendant and may 8 employ, subject to the prior approval of the magistrate or the district 9 court in an ex parte application, such investigative, expert or other 10 services as may be necessary for an adequate defense.
11 Compensation to any person furnishing such investigative, expert or 12 other services must not exceed ~~13~~ $500, exclusive of 13 reimbursement for expenses reasonably incurred, unless payment in 14 excess of that limit is:

15 1. Certified by the trial judge of the court, or by the magistrate 16 if the services were rendered in connection with a case disposed of 17 entirely before him, as necessary to provide fair compensation for 18 services of an unusual character or duration; and

19 2. Approved by the presiding judge of the judicial district in 20 which the attorney was appointed ~~14~~ or , if there is no presiding 21 judge, by the district judge who holds seniority in years of service in 22 office.

23 Sec. 3. Chapter 178 of NRS is hereby amended by adding 24 thereto a new section to read as follows:

25 If a magistrate or district court appoints an attorney, other than 26 a public defender, to represent a defendant accused of murder of 27 the first degree in a case in which the death penalty is sought, the 28 magistrate or court must appoint a team to defend the accused
29 person that includes:

30 1. Two attorneys; and

31 2. Any other person as deemed necessary by the court, upon 32 motion of an attorney representing the defendant.

33 Sec. 4. The provisions of subsection 1 of NRS 354.599 do not 34 apply to any additional expenses of a local government that are 35 related to the provisions of this act.
