ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION—Memorializing the victims of the events of September 11, 2001.

- 1 WHEREAS, On September 11, 2001, terror struck the heart of 2 America, but that terror found no resting place in the hearts of 3 Americans who, in the moments and days following the first 4 realization that our country had been attacked, countered with 5 courage and an outpouring of love and compassion that evidence the 6 best of our great Nation; and 7 WHEREAS, We will not forget the shocking events of that 8 Tuesday morning in September 2001, and we will not forget the 9 stories of heroism and determination that unfolded in New York
10 City, at the Pentagon and in the skies over Pennsylvania as ordinary

1 people faced the most frightening circumstances one could possibly 2 imagine and met the challenge by risking their own lives in heroic 3 attempts to help others; and

4 WHEREAS, By their examples, we have learned from these 5 heroes how to respond to evil with good, and to respond to terror 6 with love, and in remembering their selflessness, we are given the 7 strength to continue to reach out to the people we meet each day 8 with kindness and respect; and

9 WHEREAS, We, as Americans, have been blessed with 10 democracy and freedom, and endowed with the gift to do good, and 11 the responsibility to do no less; and

12 WHEREAS, From the Civil War to the Great Depression to 13 World War II, American life has always been about facing 14 challenges and rising up together to set a shining example of a 15 society based on equality, freedom and tolerance; and

16 WHEREAS, As we struggle with the loss of so many lives, 2,801
17 at the destruction of the World Trade Center Towers, 184 at the 18 attack on the Pentagon, and the 40 passengers and crew members of 19 United Airlines Flight 93, each with a face and a name, and families
20 and friends who loved them, we also recognize our own mortality
21 and take the opportunities presented each day to express our love
22 and appreciation for those around us, and make the most of the days
23 remaining for each of us; now, therefore, be it

24 RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE 25 SENATE CONCURRING, That united in our national mourning, we 26 will remember every family that lives in grief and we pray that their 27 sorrow is fading even as the thoughts of their loved ones remain as 28 cherished and comforting memories; and be it further

29 RESOLVED, That the thousands of innocent victims whose lives 30 were brought to a tragic and horrifying end by evil too terrible for 31 most to comprehend, will be honored by our common and unending
32 pursuit of freedom and peace in the world, and by our continued
33 dedication to public service and respect for all humanity.
