FILE NUMBER.....

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION—Recognizing February 6, 2003, as Ronald Reagan Day.

WHEREAS, Former President Ronald Wilson Reagan, a man of humble background, worked throughout his life to preserve freedom and advance the public good, having been employed as an entertainer, a Union leader, a corporate spokesman, the Governor of California and the President of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Ronald Reagan served with honor and distinction for two terms as the 40th President of the United States; and

WHEREAS, In 1981, when Ronald Reagan was inaugurated President, he inherited a disillusioned nation shackled by rampant inflation and high unemployment; and

WHEREAS, During his second election, Ronald Reagan earned the confidence of three-fifths of the electorate and was victorious in 49 of the 50 states in the general election, a record unsurpassed in the history of American presidential elections; and

WHEREAS, During Ronald Reagan’s presidency, he worked in a bipartisan manner to enact his bold agenda of restoring accountability and common sense to government which led to an unprecedented economic expansion and opportunity for millions of Americans; and

WHEREAS, Ronald Reagan’s commitment to America’s Armed Forces contributed to the restoration of pride in America, her values and those cherished by the free world, and prepared the Armed Forces of the United States to win the Gulf War; and

WHEREAS, Former President Reagan’s vision of “peace through strength” led to the end of the “Cold War” and the ultimate demise of the Soviet Union, guaranteeing basic human rights for millions of people; and

WHEREAS, After two terms in office, Ronald Reagan’s innovative and challenging program known as the “Reagan Revolution,” which focused on reinvigorating the American people and reducing their reliance upon government, was considered a complete success; and

WHEREAS, Today, February 6, 2003, Ronald Wilson Reagan will have reached the age of 92 years; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE ASSEMBLY CONCURRING, That the members of the Nevada Legislature hereby join the nation in recognizing this day, February 6, 2003, as Ronald Reagan Day in honor of a man who dedicated his life to the service of our country; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Nancy Reagan, Ronald Reagan's loving and devoted wife of 50 years.
