AN ACT relating to crimes; prohibiting the use of an electronic stun device under certain circumstances; prohibiting certain persons from possessing an electronic stun device; prohibiting the sale or disposal of an electronic stun device to certain persons; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law creates various crimes to protect the public health and safety of the
2 residents of this State. (Chapter 202 of NRS)

3 This bill creates a new crime for unlawfully using or possessing an electronic
4 stun device. An electronic stun device is a device that is designed to disable a
5 person or animal temporarily or permanently in a certain manner. This bill prohibits
6 a person from using an electronic stun device except in self-defense. This bill
7 further prohibits certain persons from having an electronic stun device in their 8 possession. These prohibitions do not apply to a peace officer who uses or 9 possesses the device within the scope of his public duties.

10 This bill provides that a person who uses the electronic stun device on another
11 person for any purpose other than self-defense is guilty of a category B felony. A 12 person who has been convicted of a felony or who is a fugitive from justice and 13 who possesses an electronic stun device is guilty of a category B felony. A person 14 who has been adjudicated as mentally ill, who has been committed to any mental 15 health facility or who is illegally or unlawfully in the United States and who 16 possesses an electronic stun device is guilty of a category D felony.

17        This bill prohibits a child from possessing an electronic stun device. A child 18 who violates this provision commits a delinquent act and is subject to the 19 jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

20        This bill also prohibits a person from selling, giving or otherwise providing an 21 electronic stun device to any person he knows is prohibited from possessing an 22 electronic stun device. This prohibition does not apply to a peace officer acting
23 within the scope of his public duties. A person who violates this provision is guilty
24 of a category D felony.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1        Section 1. Chapter 202 of NRS is hereby amended by adding
2 thereto a new section to read as follows:

3        *1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person shall
4 not use an electronic stun device on another person for any
5 purpose other than self-defense.*

6        2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person shall 7 not have in his possession or under his custody or control any 8 electronic stun device if he:

9        *(a) Has been convicted of a felony in this State or any other
10 state, or in any political subdivision thereof, or of a felony in
11 violation of the laws of the United States of America, unless he 12 has received a pardon and the pardon does not restrict his right to 13 bear arms;*

14        (b) Is a fugitive from justice;

15        (c) Has been adjudicated as mentally ill or has been committed 16 to any mental health facility; or

17        (d) Is illegally or unlawfully in the United States.

18        *3. A child under 18 years of age shall not have in his
19 possession or under his custody or control any electronic stun
20 device.*

21        *4. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person
22 within this State shall not sell, give or otherwise provide an 23 electronic stun device to another person if he has actual 24 knowledge that the other person:*

25        (a) Is a child under 18 years of age;

26        *(b) Has been convicted of a felony in this State or any other
27 state, or in any political subdivision thereof, or of a felony in
28 violation of the laws of the United States of America, unless he
29 has received a pardon and the pardon does not restrict his right to
30 bear arms;*

31        (c) Is a fugitive from justice;

32        *(d) Has been adjudicated as mentally ill or has been committed
33 to any mental health facility; or*

34        (e) Is illegally or unlawfully in the United States.

* A B 1 2 3 R 2 *

1       5. A person who violates the provisions of:

2           (a) Subsection 1 or paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 2 is
3 guilty of a category B felony and shall be punished by
4 imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not less
5 than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 6 years, and 6 may be further punished by a fine of not more than $5,000.

7           (b) Paragraph (c) or (d) of subsection 2 is guilty of a category
8 D felony and shall be punished as provided in NRS 193.130.

9       6. A child who violates subsection 3 commits a delinquent act
10 and the court may order the detention of the child in the same
11 manner as if the child had committed an act that would have been 12 a felony if committed by an adult.

13       7. A person who violates the provisions of subsection 4 is 14 guilty of a category D felony and shall be punished as provided in 15 NRS 193.130.

16       8. The provisions of subsections 1, 2 and 4 do not apply to a
17 peace officer who possesses or uses or sells, gives or otherwise
18 provides to another person an electronic stun device within the 19 scope of his duties.

20       9. As used in this section, "electronic stun device" means a 21 device that:

22           (a) Emits an electrical charge or current that is transmitted by 23 projectile, physical contact or other means; and

24           (b) Is designed to disable a person or animal temporarily or 25 permanently.

26       Sec. 2. NRS 209.511 is hereby amended to read as follows:

27       209.511 1. When an offender is released from prison by 28 expiration of his term of sentence, by pardon or by parole, the 29 Director:

30           (a) May furnish him with a sum of money not to exceed $100,
31 the amount to be based upon the offender's economic need as 32 determined by the Director;

33           (b) Shall give him notice of the provisions of chapter 179C of 34 NRS and NRS 202.360 ~~(b)~~ and section 1 of this act;

35           (c) Shall require him to sign an acknowledgment of the notice
36 required in paragraph (b);

37           (d) Shall give him notice of the provisions of NRS 179.245 and 38 the provisions of NRS 213.090, 213.155 or 213.157, as applicable;

39           (e) May provide him with clothing suitable for reentering
40 society;

41           (f) May provide him with the cost of transportation to his place
42 of residence anywhere within the continental United States, or to the 43 place of his conviction; and

* A B 1 2 3 R 2 *

1       (g) Shall require him to submit to at least one test for exposure
2 to the human immunodeficiency virus.

3       2. The costs authorized in paragraphs (a), (e), (f) and (g) of 4 subsection 1 must be paid out of the appropriate account within the
5 State General Fund for the use of the Department as other claims
6 against the State are paid to the extent that the costs have not 7 been paid in accordance with subsection 5 of NRS 209.221 and
8 NRS 209.246.

9       Sec. 3. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.
