AN ACT relating to veterans; revising the provisions governing the filling of certain vacancies on the Nevada Veterans' Services Commission; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law creates the Nevada Veterans' Services Commission to advise the
2 Executive Director for Veterans' Services and Deputy Executive Director for
3 Veterans' Services of the Office of Veterans' Services and to make
4 recommendations to the Governor, Legislature, Executive Director and Deputy
5 Executive Director regarding aid or benefits for veterans. (NRS 417.150, 417.190)
6 The Commission consists of nine members, including three members appointed by 7 the Governor that must be representatives of nationally recognized veterans'
8 organizations and possess honorable discharges from the Armed Services. If a
9 vacancy occurs among those members, the Governor is required to fill the vacancy
10 from among the names of qualified nominees provided by the Adjutant General.
11 (NRS 417.150)
