AN ACT relating to insurance; increasing the maximum annual amounts that may be assessed against certain insurers for purposes relating to investigation of insurance fraud; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires insurers and reinsurers who transact insurance in Nevada to pay an assessment which is based on the amount of insurance premiums that an insurer or reinsurer charges its policyholders. The assessments are deposited in the Special Investigative Account in the State General Fund and used to support the Fraud Control Unit for Insurance in the Office of the Attorney General. The Unit investigates and prosecutes persons who commit insurance fraud. (NRS 679B.700)

This bill increases the maximum amounts that may be assessed against insurers and reinsurers under NRS 679B.700.

4 any subsequent fiscal year for the purposes of this section.

5     2. The Commissioner shall:

6         (a) In cooperation with the Attorney General, biennially prepare
