AN ACT relating to real property; providing an exception to the requirement that a seller complete and serve a disclosure form on a purchaser of residential property for certain actions for foreclosure; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires, with certain exceptions, a seller to complete and serve a disclosure form on a purchaser of certain residential property at least 10 days before the property is conveyed to the purchaser to disclose the condition of the residential property offered for sale. (NRS 113.120, 113.130)

This bill provides an additional exception to that requirement for transactions by foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure.
