EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to residential leases; authorizing certain persons to terminate such a lease under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law authorizes spouses, either of whom are 60 years of age or older, to
2 terminate the lease of a dwelling upon the death of either spouse if the combined
3 income of the spouses is less than $10,000 for the calendar year preceding the death
4 of the spouse. A spouse has 6 months in which to terminate a lease in this manner.
5 (NRS 118A.340)

6 This bill deletes and replaces those provisions. The new provisions extend the 7 authority to terminate a lease to certain other persons and circumstances. This bill
8 authorizes a person to terminate a lease if he or his cotenant is at least 60 years of 9 age or disabled and develops a mental or physical condition requiring him to 10 relocate. A person has 60 days after the relocation in which to terminate a lease in 11 this manner. This bill also authorizes a person who is at least 60 years of age or 12 who is disabled to terminate a lease upon the death of his spouse or cotenant. A 13 person has 6 months in which to terminate a lease in this manner. If the need to 14 terminate the lease is caused by a mental or physical condition, the person
15 terminating the lease is required to include reasonable verification of the condition
16 with the notice of his intent to terminate the lease.
