

Assembly Bill No. 289—Assemblyman Mortenson

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to cultural resources; requiring the Administrator of the Office of Historic Preservation of the Department of Cultural Affairs to establish a stewardship program for the protection of cultural resources; providing funding to carry out the stewardship program; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, the Office of Historic Preservation of the Department of Cultural Affairs protects prehistoric and historic sites, including Indian burial sites. (Chapters 381 and 383 of NRS)

This bill requires the Administrator of the Office of Historic Preservation to establish a stewardship program for cultural resources located on public land in Nevada, including objects, sites or information of historic, prehistoric, archeological, architectural or paleontological significance. The Administrator must select, train and certify unpaid volunteers to serve in the stewardship program. The Administrator must coordinate with federal, state and local governmental agencies, Native American tribes and private industry to carry out the program. The Administrator and the Office must provide administrative services to assist in carrying out the program.

The stewardship program is authorized to: (1) submit to the Administrator a list of cultural resource sites to be monitored; (2) schedule periodic monitoring activities for cultural resources included on the list; (3) establish requirements for reporting damage or threats of damage to cultural resources; and (4) establish programs for educating the public concerning the significance and value of cultural resources and the loss to the public resulting from damage to those resources.

This bill also provides funding to carry out the stewardship program for Fiscal Years 2005-2006 and 2006-2007.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 383 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. The Administrator shall, by regulation, establish a stewardship program to:

(a) Protect cultural resources located on public land in this State;

(b) Increase public awareness of the significance and value of cultural resources and the damage done to cultural resources by an act of vandalism;

(c) Discourage acts of vandalism and the unlawful sale and trade of artifacts, including, without limitation, archeological and paleontological materials;

(d) Support and encourage improved standards for investigating and researching cultural resources in this State;

(e) Promote cooperation among governmental agencies, organizations, private industries, Native American tribes and persons who wish to protect cultural resources and enter into agreements with those agencies, organizations, private industries, Native American tribes and persons to promote the protection of cultural resources; and

(f) Increase the inventory of cultural resources maintained pursuant to NRS 383.021.

2. The Administrator shall select, train and certify volunteers to serve in the stewardship program based upon the requirements established by the Administrator.

3. The stewardship program may:

(a) In cooperation with governmental agencies, organizations, private industries, Native American tribes and persons specified in paragraph (e) of subsection 1, submit a proposed list to the Administrator for his approval setting forth any sites that are or may include cultural resources located on public land in this State;

(b) Schedule periodic monitoring activities by volunteers of sites included on the list approved pursuant to paragraph (a);

(c) Establish requirements for reporting any act of vandalism to appropriate authorities as determined by the Administrator; and

(d) Establish programs for educating the members of the public concerning the significance and value of cultural resources and the loss to the members of the public resulting from damage to cultural resources.

4. The Administrator shall coordinate the activities of federal agencies, private industries, Native American tribes and state and local governmental agencies, as necessary, to carry out the stewardship program.

5. The Administrator and the Office shall provide administrative services to assist in carrying out the stewardship program.

6. Volunteers selected for the stewardship program serve without compensation and are not entitled to receive any per diem allowance or travel expenses.

7. The Administrator may accept gifts, grants, donations or contributions from any source to assist him in carrying out the stewardship program.

8. As used in this section, "act of vandalism" means to damage, destroy or commit or threaten to commit any other act that defaces or harms any cultural resources without the consent of the owner or appropriate governmental agency, including, without limitation, inscribing, marking, etching, scratching, drawing, painting on or affixing to the cultural resources any mark, figure or design.
