2 connection with the business of an employing unit constitute 3 employment for that employing unit.

4 2. The Administrator may, upon his own motion or upon the 5 application of an employing unit, make a determination that 6 substantially common ownership, management or control exists
7 between any two or more employers.

8 3. Appeal from any such determination may be taken in the 9 manner prescribed by this chapter for the appeal of determinations 10 respecting benefits.

11 ~~13.1~~ 4. A determination of the Administrator which has not 12 been appealed, or of the Appeal Tribunal, the Board of Review or 13 the district court on appeal, together with the record, may be 14 introduced in any proceeding involving a claim for benefits, and is 15 conclusive as to the facts and the determination, unless the claimant 16 introduces substantial evidence controverting a material fact so 17 found.

18 Sec. 3. NRS 612.365 is hereby amended to read as follows:

19 612.365 1. Any person who is overpaid any amount as 20 benefits under this chapter is liable for the amount overpaid unless:

21 (a) The overpayment was not due to fraud, misrepresentation or 22 willful nondisclosure on the part of the recipient; and

23 (b) The overpayment was received without fault on the part of 24 the recipient, and its recovery would be against equity and good 25 conscience, as determined by the Administrator.

26 2. The amount of the overpayment must be assessed to the 27 liable person, and he must be notified of the basis of the assessment.
28 The notice must specify the amount for which the person is liable. In 31 later than 1 year after the close of the benefit year in which the 32 overpayment was made.

33 3. At any time within 5 years after the notice of overpayment, 34 the Administrator may recover the amount of the overpayment by 35 using the same methods of collection provided in NRS 612.625 to 36 612.645, inclusive, 612.685 and 612.686 for the collection of past 37 due contributions or by deducting the amount of the overpayment 38 from any benefits payable to the liable person under this chapter.

39 4. The Administrator may waive recovery or adjustment of all

42 administratively impracticable.

43 5. Any person against whom liability is determined under this 44 section may appeal therefrom within ~~10~~ 11 days after the date the 45 notice provided for in this section was mailed to, or served upon, the 7 because he was unlawfully discharged is liable for the amount of the 8 benefits paid to him during the period for which the back pay was 9 awarded, without regard to the length of time that has passed since 10 the benefits were paid. The employer's reserve account must be 11 credited, effective as of the date the benefits were paid, with the 12 amount of those benefits. Before an employer pays the employee, he 13 shall ascertain the amount of the benefits received by the person 14 during the period for which back pay was awarded and shall 15 withhold that amount from the payment of back pay. He shall 16 deliver the amount withheld to the Division.

17 2. The Administrator may recover from the person liable, the 18 amount due within 3 years after the payment of back pay, if the 19 employer does not withhold it, by using the method of collection 20 provided in NRS 612.625 to 612.645, inclusive, or by deducting the 21 amount due from any benefits payable to the person liable for 22 repayment.

23 3. The Administrator may waive recovery or adjustment of all 24 or part of the amount due which he finds to be uncollectible or the 25 recovery or adjustment of which he finds to be administratively 26 impracticable.

27 4. Any person who is liable pursuant to this section may appeal 28 the repayment within ~~10~~ 11 days after the award of back pay. The 29 appeal must be made in the manner provided in this chapter for the 30 appeals from determinations of benefit status. The ~~10-day~~ 11-day 31 period provided for in this subsection may be extended by the 32 Administrator for good cause.

37 claimant who has not earned remuneration with his last covered 38 employer equal to or exceeding his weekly benefit amount in each 39 of 16 weeks must be notified of any new claim or additional claim 40 filed by the unemployed claimant following his separation.

41 2. The notice of the filing of a claim must contain the 42 claimant's name and social security number and may contain the 43 reason for separation from the employing unit affected as given by 44 the claimant, the date of separation and such other information as is 45 deemed proper.

3. Upon receipt of a notice of the filing of a claim, the employing unit shall, within ~~10~~ 11 days after the date of the mailing of the notice, submit to the Division any facts which may affect the claimant's rights to benefits.

4. Any employing unit that receives a notice of the filing of a claim may protest payment of benefits to the unemployed claimant if the protest is filed within ~~10~~ 11 days after the notice is filed.

Sec. 8. NRS 612.485 is hereby amended to read as follows:

612.485 1. Any determination or redetermination is final ~~10~~ 11 days after the date of notification or mailing of the notice of determination or redetermination unless a request for reconsideration or an appeal is filed within the ~~10-day~~ 11-day period.

3. Any notice of a determination or redetermination must clearly indicate the interested persons' right to appeal.

Sec. 9. NRS 612.495 is hereby amended to read as follows:

The appeal must be filed within ~~10~~ 11 days after the date of mailing or personal service of the notice of determination or redetermination. The ~~10-day~~ 11-day period may be extended for good cause shown. Any employing unit whose rights may be adversely affected may be permitted by the Appeal Tribunal to intervene as a party respondent to the appeal.

2. An appeal shall be deemed to be filed on the date it is delivered to the Division, or, if it is mailed, on the postmarked date appearing on the envelope in which it was mailed, if postage is prepaid and the envelope is properly addressed to the office of the

1 Division that mailed notice of the person's claim for benefits to each 2 employer entitled to notice under NRS 612.475.

3 3. The ~~{10-day}~~ 11-day period provided for in this section must 4 be computed by excluding the day the determination was mailed or 5 personally served, and including the last day of the ~~{10-day}~~ 11-day 6 period, unless the last day is a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, in 7 which case that day must also be excluded.

8 4. The Appeal Tribunal may permit the withdrawal of the 9 appeal by the appellant at the appellant's request if there is no 10 coercion or fraud involved in the withdrawal.

11 Sec. 10. NRS 612.510 is hereby amended to read as follows:

12 612.510 1. After a hearing an Appeal Tribunal shall make its 13 findings promptly and on the basis thereof affirm, modify or reverse 14 the determination. Each party must be promptly furnished a copy of 15 the decision and the supporting findings.

16 2. The decision is final unless an appeal to the Board of 17 Review or a request for review or appeal to the Board of Review 18 is filed, within ~~{10}~~ 11 days after the decision has been mailed to 19 each party's last known address or otherwise delivered to him. The 20 ~~{10-day}~~ 11-day period may be extended for good cause shown.

21 3. A request for review or appeal to the Board of Review shall 22 be deemed to be filed on the date it is delivered to the Division, or, 23 if it is mailed, on the postmarked date appearing on the envelope in 24 which it was mailed, if the postage was prepaid and the envelope
25 was properly addressed to one of the offices of the Division.

26 4. The time provided for in this section must be computed in 27 the manner provided in NRS 612.495.

28 Sec. 11. NRS 612.515 is hereby amended to read as follows:

29 612.515 1. An appeal to the Board of Review by any party
30 must be allowed as a matter of right if the Appeal Tribunal's 31 decision reversed or modified the Administrator's determination. In 32 all other cases, further review must be at the discretion of the Board 33 of Review.

34 2. The Board on its own motion may initiate a review of a 35 decision or determination of an Appeal Tribunal within ~~{10}~~ 11 days 36 after the date of mailing of the decision.

37 3. The Board may affirm, modify or reverse the findings or 38 conclusions of the Appeal Tribunal solely on the basis of evidence 39 previously submitted, or upon the basis of such additional evidence 40 as it may direct to be taken.

41 4. Each party, including the Administrator, must be promptly 42 furnished a copy of the decision and the supporting findings of the 43 Board of Review.

Sec. 12. NRS 612.525 is hereby amended to read as follows:

612.525 1. Any decision of the Board of Review in the absence of an appeal therefrom as herein provided becomes final ~~10~~ 11 days after the date of notification or mailing thereof, and judicial review thereof is permitted only after any party claiming to be aggrieved thereby has exhausted his administrative remedies as provided by this chapter.

2. The Administrator shall be deemed to be a party to any judicial action involving any such decision, and may be represented in any such judicial action by:

(a) Any qualified attorney employed by the Administrator and designated by him for that purpose; or

(b) The Attorney General, at the Administrator's request.

3. The Administrator may appeal from any decision of the Board of Review to the courts as may any other party to that decision.

Sec. 13. NRS 612.530 is hereby amended to read as follows:

612.530 1. Within ~~10~~ 11 days after the decision of the Board of Review has become final, any party aggrieved thereby or the Administrator may secure judicial review thereof by commencing an action in the district court of the county where the employment which is the basis of the claim was performed for the review of the decision, in which action any other party to the proceedings before the Board of Review must be made a defendant.

2. In such action, a petition which need not be verified, but which must state the grounds upon which a review is sought, must be served upon the Administrator, unless he is the appellant, or upon such person as he may designate, and such service shall be deemed completed service on all parties, but there must be left with the party so served as many copies of the petition as there are defendants, and the Administrator shall forthwith mail one such copy to each defendant.

3. With his answer or petition, the Administrator shall certify and file with the court originals or true copies of all documents and papers and a transcript of all testimony taken in the matter, together with the Board of Review's findings of fact and decision therein. The Administrator may certify to the court questions of law involved in any decision.

4. In any judicial proceedings under this section, the finding of the Board of Review as to the facts, if supported by evidence and in the absence of fraud, is conclusive, and the jurisdiction of the court is confined to questions of law.

5. Such actions, and the questions so certified, must be heard in a summary manner and must be given precedence over all other

1 civil cases except cases arising under chapters 616A to 616D,
2 inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS.

3 6. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the district
4 court to the Supreme Court of Nevada in the same manner, but not 5 inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, as is provided in 6 civil cases.

7 7. It is not necessary, in any judicial proceeding under this 8 section, to enter exceptions to the rulings of the Board of Review, 9 and no bond may be required for entering the appeal.

10 8. Upon the final determination of the judicial proceeding, the 11 Board of Review shall enter an order in accordance with the 12 determination.

13 9. A petition for judicial review does not act as a supersedeas 14 or stay unless the Board of Review so orders.

15 Sec. 14. NRS 612.545 is hereby amended to read as follows:

16 612.545 1. For the purposes of NRS 612.535, 612.540 and 17 612.606, wages do not include that part of the wages paid for 18 employment to a person by an employer during any calendar year
19 which exceeds 66 2/3 percent of the average annual wage, rounded 20 to the nearest hundred dollars, for the preceding calendar year unless 21 that part of the wages is subject to a tax under a federal law
22 imposing a tax against which credit may be taken for contributions 23 paid under this chapter. The average annual wage for employers 24 who do not elect reimbursement in lieu of contributions must be 25 computed as follows: On or before July 1, the total wages reported 26 for the preceding calendar year by those employers who are subject 27 to the provisions of this chapter must be divided by the average of 28 the 12 mid-month totals of all workers in employment for employers 29 as reported in that year.

30 2. For the purpose of this section:

31 (a) Any employer who acquired a part of or the entire ~~for a~~
32 ~~distinct and severable portion of the~~ organization, trade or business 33 or substantially all of the assets of an employer must be treated as a 34 single unit with its predecessor for the calendar year in which the 35 acquisition occurs.

36 (b) The wages paid by an employer to an employee performing 37 services for him in another state upon which contributions are 38 required to be paid by that employer under the unemployment 39 compensation law of that state, must be included as part of the 40 wages used to calculate the contributions in subsection 1.

41 Sec. 15. NRS 612.550 is hereby amended to read as follows:

42 612.550 1. As used in this section:

43 (a) "Average actual duration" means the number of weeks
44 obtained by dividing the number of weeks of benefits paid for weeks

1 of total unemployment in a consecutive 12-month period by the 2 number of first payments made in the same 12-month period.

3 (b) "Average annual payroll" for each calendar year means the 4 annual average of total wages paid by an employer subject to 5 contributions for the 3 consecutive calendar years immediately 6 preceding the computation date. The average annual payroll for 7 employers first qualifying as eligible employers must be computed 8 on the total amount of wages paid, subject to contributions, for not 9 less than 10 consecutive quarters and not more than 12 consecutive 10 quarters ending on December 31, immediately preceding the 11 computation date.

12 (c) "Beneficiary" means a person who has received a first 13 payment.

14 (d) "Computation date" for each calendar year means June 30 of 15 the preceding calendar year.

16 (e) "Covered worker" means a person who has worked in 17 employment subject to this chapter.

18 (f) "First payment" means the first weekly unemployment 19 insurance benefit paid to a person in his benefit year.

20 (g) "Reserve balance" means the excess, if any, of total 21 contributions paid by each employer over total benefit charges to his 22 experience rating record.

23 (h) "Reserve ratio" means the percentage ratio that the reserve 24 balance bears to the average annual payroll.

25 (i) "Total contributions paid" means the total amount of 26 contributions, due on wages paid on or before the computation date, 27 paid by an employer not later than the last day of the second month 28 immediately following the computation date.

29 (j) "Unemployment risk ratio" means the ratio obtained by 30 dividing the number of first payments issued in any consecutive 31 12-month period by the average monthly number of covered 32 workers in employment as shown on the records of the Division for 33 the same 12-month period.

34 2. The Administrator shall, as of the computation date for each 35 calendar year, classify employers in accordance with their actual 36 payrolls, contributions and benefit experience, and shall determine 37 for each employer the rate of contribution which applies to him for 38 each calendar year in order to reflect his experience and 39 classification. The contribution rate of an employer may not be 40 reduced below 2.95 percent, unless there have been 12 consecutive 41 calendar quarters immediately preceding the computation date
42 throughout which he has been subject to this chapter and his account 43 as an employer could have been charged with benefit payments, 44 except that an employer who has not been subject to the law for a 45 sufficient period to meet this requirement may qualify for a rate less

1 than 2.95 percent if his account has been chargeable throughout a 2 lesser period not less than the 10-consecutive-calendar-quarter
3 period ending on the computation date.

4 3. Any employer who qualifies under paragraph (b) of 5 subsection 9 and receives the experience record of a predecessor 6 employer must be assigned the contribution rate of his predecessor.

7 4. Benefits paid to a person up to and including the 8 computation date must be charged against the records, for 9 experience rating, of his base-period employers in the same 10 percentage relationship that wages reported by individual employers 11 represent to total wages reported by all base period employers, 12 except that:

13 (a) If one of the base period employers has paid 75 percent or 14 more of the wages paid to the person during his base period, and 15 except as otherwise provided in NRS 612.551, the benefits, less a 16 proportion equal to the proportion of wages paid during the base 17 period by employers who make reimbursement in lieu of 18 contributions, must be charged to the records for experience rating 19 of that employer. The proportion of benefits paid which is equal to 20 the part of the wages of the claimant for the base period paid by an 21 employer who makes reimbursement must be charged to the record 22 of that employer.

23 (b) No benefits paid to a multistate claimant based upon 24 entitlement to benefits in more than one state may be charged to the 25 experience rating record of any employer when no benefits would 26 have been payable except pursuant to NRS 612.295.

27 (c) Except for employers who have been given the right to make 28 reimbursement in lieu of contributions, extended benefits paid to a 29 person must not be charged against the accounts of his base-period 30 employers.

31 5. The Administrator shall, as of the computation date for each
32 calendar year, compute the reserve ratio for each eligible employer 33 and shall classify those employers on the basis of their individual 34 reserve ratios. The contribution rate assigned to each eligible 35 employer for the calendar year must be determined by the range 36 within which his reserve ratio falls. The Administrator shall, by 37 regulation, prescribe the contribution rate schedule to apply for each 38 calendar year by designating the ranges of reserve ratios to which 39 must be assigned the various contribution rates provided in 40 subsection 6. The lowest contribution rate must be assigned to the 41 designated range of highest reserve ratios and each succeeding 42 higher contribution rate must be assigned to each succeeding 43 designated range of lower reserve ratios, except that, within the 44 limits possible, the differences between reserve ratio ranges must be 45 uniform.

6. Each employer eligible for a contribution rate based upon experience and classified in accordance with this section must be assigned a contribution rate by the Administrator for each calendar year according to the following classes:

Class 1 .....	0.25 percent
Class 2 .....	0.55 percent
Class 3 .....	0.85 percent
Class 4 .....	1.15 percent
Class 5 .....	1.45 percent
Class 6 .....	1.75 percent
Class 7 .....	2.05 percent
Class 8 .....	2.35 percent
Class 9 .....	2.65 percent
Class 10 .....	2.95 percent
Class 11 .....	3.25 percent
Class 12 .....	3.55 percent
Class 13 .....	3.85 percent
Class 14 .....	4.15 percent
Class 15 .....	4.45 percent
Class 16 .....	4.75 percent
Class 17 .....	5.05 percent
Class 18 .....	5.40 percent

7. On September 30 of each year, the Administrator shall determine:

(a) The highest of the unemployment risk ratios experienced in the 109 consecutive 12-month periods in the 10 years ending on March 31;

(b) The potential annual number of beneficiaries found by multiplying the highest unemployment risk ratio by the average monthly number of covered workers in employment as shown on the records of the Division for the 12 months ending on March 31;

(c) The potential annual number of weeks of benefits payable found by multiplying the potential number of beneficiaries by the highest average actual duration experienced in the 109 consecutive 12-month periods in the 10 years ending on September 30; and

(d) The potential maximum annual benefits payable found by multiplying the potential annual number of weeks of benefits payable by the average payment made to beneficiaries for weeks of total unemployment in the 12 months ending on September 30.

8. The Administrator shall issue an individual statement, itemizing benefits charged during the 12-month period ending on the computation date, total benefit charges, total contributions paid, reserve balance and the rate of contributions to apply for that

1 calendar year, for each employer whose account is in active status
2 on the records of the Division on January 1 of each year and whose
