Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, in addition to a hunting license, a tag is required for a person to hunt deer, elk, antelope, mountain sheep or bear. (NRS 502.130) Existing law authorizes the Board of Wildlife Commissioners to regulate the manner in which such tags may be obtained and used. (NRS 502.160) Existing law also authorizes the Department of Wildlife to issue deer or antelope tags as compensation for damage caused by those animals on private land. (NRS 502.145)

This bill provides that a person who obtains a tag to hunt a mule deer and who is successful in harvesting a mule deer is not eligible to apply for another tag to hunt a mule deer during the year after the year in which he harvests the mule deer. This provision does not apply to a person who is less than 17 years of age or who applies for the issuance of a tag to hunt deer as compensation for damage caused by deer to the person's private property.
