S.B. No. 83—Makes various changes relating to conduct of closed meeting by public body to consider character, alleged misconduct, professional competence, or physical or mental health of person.

Amend the title of the bill by deleting the fifth line and inserting:

“closed meeting to attend the meeting, have an attorney or other representative present at the meeting and present”.

If this amendment is adopted, the Legislative Counsel's Digest will be changed to read as follows:

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law prohibits a public body from holding a meeting to consider the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence, or physical or mental health of any person, except an elected member of a public body, unless it has given written notice to that person of the time and place of the meeting. (NRS 241.030, 241.031, 241.033)

This bill requires a public body to allow a person who is the subject of such a closed meeting of the public body to attend the closed meeting, have an attorney or other representative of his choosing present with him at the meeting and present testimony and written evidence during the meeting. The bill also requires the public body to include in the written notice that must be sent to the person who is the subject of such a closed meeting a statement of those rights and a list of the general topics concerning the person that will be considered at the meeting.
