

Senate Bill No. 107—Senator Titus

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to governmental administration; requiring certain state agencies to report information concerning capital improvements to the Legislature; requiring local governments to report information concerning capital improvements to the Legislature and the Department of Taxation; requiring the State Public Works Board to compile a report concerning projects of construction of state buildings that are financed by certain bonds or obligations; authorizing an additional date for the holding of budget hearings by certain local governments; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires local governments to establish and maintain records of their property and equipment. (NRS 354.625)

This bill requires local governments, in addition to any records established and maintained pursuant to existing law, and the Board of Regents to prepare a report concerning any capital improvements owned, leased or operated by the local government or the Board for each fiscal year. This bill also requires the Chief of the Buildings and Grounds Division of the Department of Administration to prepare a report concerning any capital improvements owned, leased pursuant to a lease-purchase agreement or operated by the State.

This bill requires the State Public Works Board to compile a report concerning projects of construction of state buildings that are financed by general obligation bonds, revenue bonds and medium-term obligations. The reports must be submitted to the Legislature annually and local governments must also submit the reports to the Department of Taxation.

Existing law provides that local governments other than counties, cities and school districts, must hold budget hearings on the third Thursday in May. (NRS 354.596)

This bill provides that local governments other than counties, cities and school districts, must hold budget hearings on the third Thursday in May or the Friday immediately succeeding the third Thursday in May.
