EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to meetings of public bodies; authorizing the governing bodies of local governments and advisory bodies to such governing bodies to hold closed meetings concerning matters relating to security and terrorism in certain circumstances; providing that records of such meetings are confidential; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law authorizes the Nevada Commission on Homeland Security to hold 2 closed meetings to receive security briefings, discuss procedures for responding to 3 acts of terrorism and related emergencies and discuss security deficiencies relating 4 to public services, public facilities and infrastructure. Under existing law, 5 information and materials prepared for the Commission for such a closed meeting 6 or received by the Commission during such a closed meeting and the minutes and 7 any audiovisual or electronic reproduction of such a closed meeting are confidential
8 and are not subject to subpoena, discovery or public inspection. (NRS 239C.140)
9 This bill authorizes the governing body of a local government and any advisory 10 body to the governing body of a local government to hold closed meetings for the 11 same purposes as the Nevada Commission on Homeland Security. This bill also 12 provides the same confidentiality for information and materials, minutes and 13 reproductions relating to those closed meetings.
