

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to motor vehicles; revising provisions governing vehicle accident reports; revising provisions governing delivery of a certificate of title following performance of the terms of a contract or security agreement; revising provisions concerning the notification provided to the owner of a motor vehicle that is towed at the request of a person other than the owner; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law requires a law enforcement officer and law enforcement agencies to provide a copy of an accident report to an injured party or his legal representative for a reasonable fee. In addition, existing law requires such officers and agencies to provide related information within their possession unless such information is privileged or confidential. (NRS 248.242, 258.072, 268.900, 269.247, 280.400, 396.328, 480.600)

This bill requires the copy of the accident report to be provided within 7 days after receipt of a written request for such a report and authorizes an insurer to request such information. This bill further provides that the report is not required to be provided within that time if the materials are privileged or confidential or if the accident involved the death or substantial bodily harm of a person, failure to stop at the scene of an accident or the commission of a felony.

Existing law requires a seller of a motor vehicle or other secured party to deliver a certificate of title to the person legally entitled to it within 15 days after the termination or release of the security agreement. (NRS 482.431)

This bill requires the Department to investigate any alleged failure to deliver a certificate of title and to impose an administrative fine for each day that the seller or other secured party fails to deliver the certificate. This bill requires the lienholder to provide to the owner of and each person who holds a security interest in the vehicle a copy of all documents relating to the sale.

Existing law provides that a person who stores a motor vehicle that has been towed at the request of someone other than the owner of the vehicle is required to provide notice to the owner within 15 days after placing the motor vehicle in storage or obtaining the identification of the owner. (NRS 706.4479)

This bill increases the time for providing notice to 21 days if the vehicle was towed at the request of a law enforcement officer following an accident involving the motor vehicle. This bill also prohibits the person who stores the vehicle from imposing any administrative or processing fee or charge for 14 days after such a motor vehicle is placed in storage.
