

Senate Bill No. 17—Senator Wiener

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to administrative regulations; removing the provision which allows the filing of permanent regulations without a review by the Legislative Commission; making the appointment of a subcommittee to review regulations mandatory; revising the procedure for objecting to an administrative regulation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides for the review, suspension and nullification by the Legislative Branch of permanent administrative regulations adopted by agencies of the Executive Branch of State Government. (Nev. Const., Art. 3, § 1; NRS 233B.0395-233B.120) The regulations are reviewed to determine whether they conform to statutory authority and carry out legislative intent. Under existing law, a state agency is required to submit permanent regulations for review by the Legislative Commission. The Commission must review the regulation if a regular meeting of the Commission is held within 35 days after receipt of the regulation. If there is no meeting of the Commission scheduled within 35 days after receipt of a regulation, the regulation is filed and becomes effective without being reviewed unless the regulation is referred to a subcommittee or a joint interim committee. (NRS 233B.067)

This bill requires that every permanent regulation be reviewed by the Legislative Commission at its next scheduled meeting after submission of the regulation unless: (1) the Commission refers the regulation to a subcommittee; or (2) the adopting agency has an emergency that requires the regulation to become effective before the next scheduled meeting of the Commission. In either case, the bill provides for review of the regulation by an established subcommittee of the Commission. This bill makes the appointment of a subcommittee to review regulations mandatory.

Existing law provides that if the Legislative Commission has objected to a regulation, the agency may revise and resubmit the regulation to the Legislative Commission until the objection is removed. Under existing law, if an agency refuses to revise a regulation to which the Legislative Commission has objected, the Legislative Commission may suspend the filing of the regulation until the final day of the next regular session of the Legislature. Unless the Legislature declares by the final day of the next regular session that the regulation will not become effective, the regulation is filed with the Secretary of State and becomes effective. (NRS 233B.0675)

This bill provides that if the Legislative Commission or subcommittee has objected to a revised regulation, the agency shall continue to revise it and resubmit it to the Commission or subcommittee until the objection is removed.
