

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to education; designating the name of the association for interscholastic activities; providing for the participation of homeschooled children in certain interscholastic activities and events; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law does not give a formal name to the association for interscholastic activities. (NRS 386.420-386.470)

This bill designates the association for interscholastic activities as the “Nevada Interscholastic Activities Association.”

Existing law allows homeschooled children to participate in interscholastic athletics governed by an interscholastic association in the same manner as pupils of a public school. (NRS 386.420-386.470) The current association formed pursuant to existing law governs only interscholastic athletics for pupils who are of high school age. Existing law also provides for the participation of homeschooled children in certain classes and extracurricular activities, excluding sports, within the school district of the child’s residence. (NRS 392.070)

This bill allows homeschooled children to participate in interscholastic activities and events in addition to those that are governed by the association that is currently formed for high school athletics. A homeschooled child must be allowed to participate through the public school that the child is otherwise zoned to attend, and the same rules governing eligibility and participation for public school pupils apply to homeschooled children.
