AN ACT relating to education; designating the name of the association for interscholastic activities; providing for the participation of homeschooled children in certain interscholastic activities and events; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

- 1 Existing law does not give a formal name to the association for interscholastic
- 2 activities. (NRS 386.420-386.470)
- 3 This bill designates the association for interscholastic activities as the “Nevada
- 4 Interscholastic Activities Association.”
- 5 Existing law allows homeschooled children to participate in interscholastic
- 6 athletics governed by an interscholastic association in the same manner as pupils of
- 7 a public school. (NRS 386.420-386.470) The current association formed pursuant
- 8 to existing law governs only interscholastic athletics for pupils who are of high
- 9 school age. Existing law also provides for the participation of homeschooled
- 10 children in certain classes and extracurricular activities, excluding sports, within the
- 11 school district of the child’s residence. (NRS 392.070)
- 12 This bill allows homeschooled children to participate in interscholastic
- 13 activities and events in addition to those that are governed by the association that is
- 14 currently formed for high school athletics. A homeschooled child must be allowed
- 15 to participate through the public school that the child is otherwise zoned to attend,
- 16 and the same rules governing eligibility and participation for public school pupils
- 17 apply to homeschooled children.
