AN ACT relating to juries; revising the provisions governing the selection of alternate jurors in criminal and civil trials; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law provides that the court may direct that not more than four alternate 2 jurors in addition to the regular jury be called and impaneled to sit as alternate 3 jurors in criminal trials, and not more than six alternate jurors be called and 4 impaneled to sit as alternate jurors in civil trials. (NRS 175.061; N.R.C.P. 47)
5 Alternate jurors are selected at the same time and in the same manner as regular 6 jurors and are called to replace jurors, as necessary, in the order in which they are 7 called. (NRS 16.030, 175.061)

8 This bill increases the number of alternate jurors that may be called in a 9 criminal trial to six. This bill also changes the manner in which alternate jurors are 10 designated in both criminal and civil trials. This bill retains the authority of the 11 court to designate alternate jurors during jury selection. Alternatively, this bill 12 authorizes the court to designate alternate jurors, through a process of random 13 selection in open court, at the end of the trial before the jury retires to deliberate.
