AN ACT relating to crimes; prohibiting a person from knowingly and intentionally capturing an image of the private area of another person under certain circumstances; prohibiting a person from knowingly distributing, disclosing, displaying, transmitting or publishing an image captured under such circumstances; prohibiting the inspection or release of such images under certain circumstances; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law creates various crimes against decency and morals and provides 2 penalties to be imposed upon persons who commit such crimes. (Chapter 201 of 3 NRS)

4 This bill prohibits a person from knowingly and intentionally capturing an 5 image of the private area of another person without the consent of the other person 6 and under circumstances in which the other person has a reasonable expectation of 7 privacy. This bill also prohibits a person from distributing, disclosing, displaying, 8 transmitting or publishing an image that the person knows or has reason to know
9 was made under such circumstances. A person who violates either provision for a 10 first violation is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, which means that the person may 11 be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for up to 1 year or by a fine of up to 12 $2,000 or by both a fine and imprisonment. For a second or subsequent violation, 13 the person is guilty of a category E felony, which means that the court is required to 14 sentence the person to imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not 15 less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 4 years, and may fine the 16 person up to $5,000. The court is then required to place the person on probation 17 after sentencing, unless specific circumstances are established which provide the 18 court with discretion to decide whether to grant probation. Probation is subject to 19 any conditions imposed by the court and may include serving up to one year in 20 county jail. (NRS 193.130)

21 This bill does not prohibit any lawful law enforcement or correctional activities 22 for the purposes of investigating or prosecuting such violations but does prohibit 23 the inspection or release of such images under certain circumstances to protect the 24 privacy of the victim.
