32 dismiss the action without prejudice for that reason only if a vote 33 or written agreement of the owners of the units to which at least a 34 majority of votes or the members of the association are allocated

9 (t) Exercise any other powers necessary and proper for the 14 with other persons.

15 Sec. 58. NRS 116.3103 is hereby amended to read as follows:

16 116.3103 1. Except as otherwise provided in the declaration, 17 the bylaws, this section or other provisions of this chapter, the 18 executive board may act in all instances on behalf of the association.
19 In the performance of their duties, the officers and members of the 20 executive board are fiduciaries. The members of the executive board 21 are required to exercise the ordinary and reasonable care of directors 22 of a corporation, subject to the business-judgment rule.

23 2. The executive board may not act on behalf of the association 24 to amend the declaration, to terminate the common-interest 25 community, or to elect members of the executive board or determine 26 their qualifications, powers and duties or terms of office, but the 27 executive board may fill vacancies in its membership for the 28 unexpired portion of any term.

29 ~~[3. Within 30 days after adoption of any proposed budget for~~ 30 ~~the common interest community, the executive board shall provide a~~ 31 ~~summary of the budget to all the units' owners, and shall set a date~~ 32 ~~for a meeting of the units' owners to consider ratification of the~~ 33 ~~budget not less than 14 nor more than 30 days after mailing of the~~ 34 ~~summary. Unless at that meeting a majority of all units' owners or~~ 35 ~~any larger vote specified in the declaration reject the budget,~~ 36 ~~the budget is ratified, whether or not a quorum is present. If the~~ 37 ~~proposed budget is rejected, the periodic budget last ratified by the~~ 38 ~~units' owners must be continued until such time as the units' owners~~ 39 ~~ratify a subsequent budget proposed by the executive board.]~~

40 Sec. 59. NRS 116.31031 is hereby amended to read as 41 follows:

42 116.31031 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if 43 a unit's owner or a tenant or guest of a unit's owner violates any 44 provision of the governing documents of an association, the

1 executive board ~~[of the association]~~ may, if the governing 2 documents so provide:

3 (a) Prohibit, for a reasonable time, the unit's owner or the tenant 4 or guest of the unit's owner from:

5 (1) Voting on matters related to the common-interest
6 community.

7 (2) Using the common elements. The provisions of this 8 subparagraph do not prohibit the unit's owner or the tenant or guest 9 of the unit's owner from using any vehicular or pedestrian ingress or 10 egress to go to or from the unit, including any area used for parking.

11 (b) Impose a fine against the unit's owner or the tenant or guest 12 of the unit's owner for each violation, except that a fine may not be 13 imposed for a violation that is the subject of a construction penalty 14 pursuant to NRS 116.310305. ~~[The]~~ If the violation poses an 15 imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the 16 health, safety or welfare of the residents of the common-interest 17 community, the amount of the fine must be commensurate with 18 the severity of the violation and must be determined by the 19 executive board in accordance with the governing documents. If 20 the violation does not pose an imminent threat of causing a 21 substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the 22 residents of the common-interest community, the amount of the 23 fine must be commensurate with the severity of the violation ~~[.]~~ and 24 must be determined by the executive board in accordance with the 25 governing documents, but the amount of the fine must not exceed 26 $100 for each violation or a total amount of ~~[$500.]~~ $1,000, 27 whichever is less. The limitations on the amount of the fine do not 28 apply to any interest, charges or costs that may be collected by the 29 association pursuant to this section if the fine becomes past due.

30 2. The executive board may not impose a fine pursuant to 31 subsection 1 unless:

32 (a) Not less than 30 days before the violation, the person against 33 whom the fine will be imposed had been provided with written 34 notice of the applicable provisions of the governing documents that 35 form the basis of the violation; and

36 (b) Within a reasonable time after the discovery of the violation, 37 the person against whom the fine will be imposed has been provided 38 with:

39 (1) Written notice specifying the details of the violation, the 40 amount of the fine, and the date, time and location for a hearing on 41 the violation; and

42 (2) A reasonable opportunity to contest the violation at the 43 hearing.

44 3. The executive board must schedule the date, time and 45 location for the hearing on the violation so that the person against

1 whom the fine will be imposed is provided with a reasonable 2 opportunity to prepare for the hearing and to be present at the 3 hearing.

4 4. The executive board must hold a hearing before it may 5 impose the fine, unless the person against whom the fine will be 6 imposed:

7 (a) Pays the fine;

8 (b) Executes a written waiver of the right to the hearing; or 9 (c) Fails to appear at the hearing after being provided with 10 proper notice of the hearing.

11 5. If a fine is imposed pursuant to subsection 1 and the 12 violation is not cured within 14 days, or within any longer period 13 that may be established by the executive board, the violation shall 14 be deemed a continuing violation. Thereafter, the executive board 15 may impose an additional fine for the violation for each 7-day 16 period or portion thereof that the violation is not cured. Any 17 additional fine may be imposed without notice and an opportunity to 18 be heard.

19 6. If the governing documents so provide, the executive board 20 may appoint a committee, with not less than three members, to 21 conduct hearings on violations and to impose fines pursuant to this 22 section. While acting on behalf of the executive board for those 23 limited purposes, the committee and its members are entitled to all 24 privileges and immunities and are subject to all duties and 25 requirements of the executive board and its members.

26 7. The provisions of this section establish the minimum 27 procedural requirements that the executive board must follow before 28 it may impose a fine. The provisions of this section do not preempt 29 any provisions of the governing documents that provide greater 30 procedural protections.

31 8. Any past due fine:

32 (a) Bears interest at the rate established by the association, not to 33 exceed the legal rate per annum.

34 (b) May include any costs of collecting the past due fine at a rate 35 established by the association. If the past due fine is for a violation 36 that does not threaten the health, safety or welfare of the residents of 37 the common-interest community, the rate established by the 38 association for the costs of collecting the past due fine:

39 (1) May not exceed $20, if the outstanding balance is less 40 than $200.

41 (2) May not exceed $50, if the outstanding balance is $200 or 42 more, but is less than $500.

43 (3) May not exceed $100, if the outstanding balance is $500 44 or more, but is less than $1,000.

(4) May not exceed $250, if the outstanding balance is $1,000 or more, but is less than $5,000.

(5) May not exceed $500, if the outstanding balance is $5,000 or more.

(c) May include any costs incurred by the association during a civil action to enforce the payment of the past due fine.

9. As used in this section:

(a) "Costs of collecting" includes, without limitation, any collection fee, filing fee, recording fee, referral fee, fee for postage or delivery, and any other fee or cost that an association may reasonably charge to the unit's owner for the collection of a past due fine. The term does not include any costs incurred by an association during a civil action to enforce the payment of a past due fine.

(b) "Outstanding balance" means the amount of a past due fine that remains unpaid before any interest, charges for late payment or costs of collecting the past due fine are added.

Sec. 60. NRS 116.31034 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31034 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5 of NRS 116.212, not later than the termination of any period of declarant's control, the units' owners shall elect an executive board of at least three members, at least a majority of whom must be units' owners. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, the remaining members of the executive board do not have to be units' owners. The executive board shall elect the officers of the association. The members of the executive board and the officers of the association shall take office upon election.

2. The term of office of a member of the executive board may not exceed 2 years, except for members who are appointed by the declarant. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, there is no limitation on the number of terms that a person may serve as a member of the executive board.

3. The governing documents of the association must provide for terms of office that are staggered in such a manner that, to the extent possible, an equal number of members of the executive board are elected at each election. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

(a) Members of the executive board who are appointed by the declarant; and

(b) Members of the executive board who serve a term of 1 year or less.

4. Not less than 30 days before the preparation of a ballot for the election of members of the executive board, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause notice to be given to each unit's owner of his eligibility to serve as a

1 member of the executive board. Each unit's owner who is qualified 2 to serve as a member of the executive board may have his name 3 placed on the ballot along with the names of the nominees selected 4 by the members of the executive board or a nominating committee 5 established by the association.

6 5. Each person whose name is placed on the ballot as a 7 candidate for a member of the executive board must ~~make~~ :

8 (a) Make a good faith effort to disclose any financial, business, 9 professional or personal relationship or interest that would result or 10 would appear to a reasonable person to result in a potential conflict 11 of interest for the candidate if the candidate were to be elected to 12 serve as a member of the executive board ~~is~~; and 13 (b) Disclose whether the candidate is a member in good 14 standing. For the purposes of this paragraph, a candidate shall 15 not be deemed to be in "good standing" if the candidate has any 16 unpaid and past due assessments or construction penalties that are 17 required to be paid to the association.

18 ➤ The candidate must make ~~the disclosure,~~ all disclosures
19 required pursuant to this subsection in writing to the association 20 with his candidacy information. The association shall distribute 21 the disclosures to each member of the association with the ballot in 22 the manner established in the bylaws of the association.

23 6. Unless a person is appointed by the declarant:

24 (a) A person may not be a member of the executive board ~~of an~~ 25 ~~association~~ or an officer of ~~that~~ the association if the person, his 26 spouse or his parent or child, by blood, marriage or adoption, 27 performs the duties of a community manager for that association.

28 (b) A person may not be a member of the executive board of a 29 master association or an officer of that master association if the 30 person, his spouse or his parent or child, by blood, marriage or 31 adoption, performs the duties of a community manager for:

32 (1) That master association; or

33 (2) Any association that is subject to the governing 34 documents of that master association.

35 7. An officer, employee, agent or director of a corporate owner 36 of a unit, a trustee or designated beneficiary of a trust that owns a 37 unit, a partner of a partnership that owns a unit, a member or 38 manager of a limited-liability company that owns a unit, and a 39 fiduciary of an estate that owns a unit may be an officer of the 40 association or a member of the executive board. In all events where 41 the person serving or offering to serve as an officer of the 42 association or a member of the executive board is not the record 43 owner, he shall file proof in the records of the association that:

1 (a) He is associated with the corporate owner, trust, partnership, 2 limited-liability company or estate as required by this subsection; 3 and

4 (b) Identifies the unit or units owned by the corporate owner, 5 trust, partnership, limited-liability company or estate.

6 8. The election of any member of the executive board must be 7 conducted by secret written ballot unless the declaration of the 8 association provides that voting rights may be exercised by 9 delegates or representatives as set forth in NRS 116.31105. If the 10 election of any member of the executive board is conducted by 11 secret written ballot:

12 (a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the 13 association shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be 14 sent, prepaid by United States mail, to the mailing address of each
15 unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing
16 address designated in writing by the unit's owner.

17 (b) Each unit's owner must be provided with at least 15 days
18 after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit's owner 19 to return the secret written ballot to the association.

20 (c) A quorum is not required for the election of any member of 21 the executive board.

22 (d) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the 23 association may be counted to determine the outcome of the 24 election.

25 (e) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a
26 meeting of the association. A quorum is not required to be present 27 when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the 28 meeting.

29 (f) The incumbent members of the executive board and each 30 person whose name is placed on the ballot as a candidate for a 31 member of the executive board may not possess, be given access to 32 or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots 33 that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots 34 have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association.

35 9. Each member of the executive board shall, within 90 days 36 after his appointment or election, certify in writing to the 37 association, on a form prescribed by the Administrator, that he has 38 read and understands the governing documents of the association 39 and the provisions of this chapter to the best of his ability. The 40 Administrator may require the association to submit a copy of the 41 certification of each member of the executive board of that 42 association at the time the association registers with the 43 Ombudsman pursuant to NRS 116.31158.

1 Sec. 61. NRS 116.31036 is hereby amended to read as
2 follows:

3 116.31036 1. Notwithstanding any provision of the 4 declaration or bylaws to the contrary, ~~[the units' owners, by a two-~~ 5 ~~thirds vote of all persons entitled to vote at any meeting of the units'~~ 6 ~~owners at which a quorum is present, may remove]~~ any member of 7 the executive board, ~~[with or without cause,]~~ other than a member 8 appointed by the declarant ~~[]~~, may be removed from the executive 9 board, with or without cause, if at a removal election held 10 pursuant to this section the number of votes cast in favor of 11 removal constitutes:

12 (a) At least 35 percent of the total number of voting members of 13 the association; and

14 (b) At least a majority of all votes cast in that removal election.

15 2. The removal of any member of the executive board must be 16 conducted by secret written ballot unless the declaration of the 17 association provides that voting rights may be exercised by 18 delegates or representatives as set forth in NRS 116.31105. If the 19 removal of a member of the executive board is conducted by secret 20 written ballot:

21 (a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the 22 association shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be 23 sent, prepaid by United States mail, to the mailing address of each
24 unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing 25 address designated in writing by the unit's owner.

26 (b) Each unit's owner must be provided with at least 15 days
27 after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit's owner 28 to return the secret written ballot to the association.

29 (c) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the 30 association may be counted to determine the outcome.

31 (d) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a
32 meeting of the association. A quorum is not required to be present 33 when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the 34 meeting.

35 (e) The incumbent members of the executive board, including, 36 without limitation, the member who is subject to the removal, may 37 not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or 38 counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the 39 association before those secret written ballots have been opened and 40 counted at a meeting of the association.

41 3. If a member of an executive board is named as a respondent 42 or sued for liability for actions undertaken in his role as a member of 43 the board, the association shall indemnify him for his losses or 44 claims, and undertake all costs of defense, unless it is proven that he 45 acted with willful or wanton misfeasance or with gross negligence.

1 After such proof, the association is no longer liable for the cost of 2 defense, and may recover costs already expended from the member 3 of the executive board who so acted. Members of the executive 4 board are not personally liable to the victims of crimes occurring on 5 the property. Punitive damages may not be recovered against the 6 association, but may be recovered from persons whose activity gave 7 rise to the damages.

8 4. The provisions of this section do not prohibit the 9 Commission from taking any disciplinary action against a member 10 of an executive board pursuant to NRS 116.745 to 116.795, 11 inclusive.

12 Sec. 62. NRS 116.31038 is hereby amended to read as 13 follows:

15 declarant may elect a majority of the members of the executive 16 board, the declarant shall deliver to the association all property of 17 the units' owners and of the association held by or controlled by 18 him, including:

19 1. The original or a certified copy of the recorded declaration 20 as amended, the ~~{association's}~~ articles of incorporation ~~{if the~~ 26 have been adopted.

27 2. An accounting for money of the association and audited 28 financial statements for each fiscal year and any ancillary period 29 from the date of inception of the association ~~{received money}~~ to the 30 date the period of the declarant's control ends. The financial 31 statements must fairly and accurately report the association's 32 financial ~~{condition prepared in accordance with generally accepted~~ 33 ~~accounting principles.}~~ position.

34 3. A complete study of the reserves of the association, 35 conducted by a person ~~{qualified by training and experience}~~ who 36 holds a permit to conduct such a study ~~{ }~~ issued pursuant to 37 sections 2 to 35, inclusive, of this act. At the time the control of the 38 declarant ends, he shall:

39 (a) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, deliver to the 40 association a reserve account that contains the declarant's share of 41 the amounts then due, and control of the account. If the declaration 42 was recorded before October 1, 1999, and, at the time the control of 43 the declarant ends, he has failed to pay his share of the amounts due, 44 the executive board shall authorize the declarant to pay the

1 deficiency in installments for a period of 3 years, unless the 2 declarant and the executive board agree to a shorter period.

3 (b) Disclose, in writing, the amount by which he has subsidized 4 the association's dues on a per unit or per lot basis.

5 4. The association's money or control thereof.

6 5. All of the declarant's tangible personal property that has 7 been represented by the declarant as property of the association or, 8 unless the declarant has disclosed in the public offering statement 9 that all such personal property used in the common-interest 10 community will remain the declarant's property, all of the 11 declarant's tangible personal property that is necessary for, and has 12 been used exclusively in, the operation and enjoyment of the 13 common elements, and inventories of these properties.

14 6. A copy of any plans and specifications used in the 15 construction of the improvements in the common-interest 16 community which were completed within 2 years before the 17 declaration was recorded.

18 7. All insurance policies then in force, in which the units' 19 owners, the association, or its directors and officers are named as 20 insured persons.

21 8. Copies of any certificates of occupancy that may have been 22 issued with respect to any improvements comprising the common-23 interest community other than units in a planned community.

24 9. Any renewable permits and approvals issued by 25 governmental bodies applicable to the common-interest community 26 which are in force and any other permits and approvals so issued 27 and applicable which are required by law to be kept on the premises 28 of the community.

29 10. Written warranties of the contractor, subcontractors, 30 suppliers and manufacturers that are still effective.

32 addresses and telephone numbers, if known, as shown on the 33 declarant's records.

34 12. Contracts of employment in which the association is a 35 contracting party.

36 13. Any contract for service in which the association is a 37 contracting party or in which the association or the units' owners 38 have any obligation to pay a fee to the persons performing the 39 services.

40 Sec. 63. NRS 116.3108 is hereby amended to read as follows:

41 116.3108 1. A meeting of the units' owners ~~[of an~~ 42 ~~association]~~ must be held at least once each year. If the governing 43 documents ~~[of a common-interest community]~~ do not designate an 44 annual meeting date of the units' owners, a meeting of the units' 45 owners must be held 1 year after the date of the last meeting of the

1 units' owners. If the units' owners have not held a meeting for 1 2 year, a meeting of the units' owners must be held on the following 3 March 1. Special meetings of the units' owners ~~[of an association]~~

20 sent in the manner required by NRS 116.31036 not less than 15 21 days or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is 22 received, and the executive board must set the date for the meeting 23 to open and count the secret written ballots so that the meeting is 24 held not more than 15 days after the deadline for returning the 25 secret written ballots.

26 2. Not less than ~~[10 nor]~~ 15 days or more than 60 days in 27 advance of any meeting of the units' owners , ~~[of an association,]~~ 28 the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause

32 association offers to send notice by electronic mail, sent by 33 electronic mail at the request of the unit's owner to an electronic 34 mail address designated in writing by the unit's owner. The notice 35 of the meeting must state the time and place of the meeting and 36 include a copy of the agenda for the meeting. The notice must 37 include notification of the right of a unit's owner to:

11 State, except that the sale may be made at the office of the 12 association if the notice of the sale so provided, whether the unit is 13 located within the same county as the office of the association or

17 proclamation made to the persons assembled at the time and place 18 previously set and advertised for the sale.

19 2. On the day of sale originally advertised or to which the sale 20 is postponed, at the time and place specified in the notice or 21 postponement, the person conducting the sale may sell the unit at 22 public auction to the highest cash bidder. Unless otherwise provided 23 in the declaration or by agreement, the association may purchase the ~~[(5)]~~ (5) Remittance of any excess to the unit's owner.

Sec. 74. NRS 116.31168 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31168 1. The provisions of NRS 107.090 apply to the foreclosure of an association's lien as if a deed of trust were being foreclosed. The request must identify the lien by stating the names of the unit's owner and the common-interest community.

2. An association may, after recording a notice of default and election to sell, waive the default and withdraw the notice or any proceeding to foreclose. The association is thereupon restored to its former position and has the same rights as though the notice had not been recorded. The association shall deliver to the Ombudsman, within 10 days after recording a notice of default, a conformed copy of any recorded instrument rescinding the notice of default.

Sec. 75. NRS 116.4103 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(k) Any current or expected fees or charges to be paid by units' owners for the use of the common elements and other facilities related to the common-interest community.

(l) The information statement set forth in NRS 116.41095.

2. A declarant is not required to revise a public offering statement more than once each calendar quarter, if the following warning is given prominence in the statement: "THIS PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT IS CURRENT AS OF (insert a specified date). RECENT DEVELOPMENTS REGARDING (here refer to particular provisions of NRS 116.4103 and 116.4105) MAY NOT BE REFLECTED IN THIS STATEMENT."

Sec. 76. NRS 116.4109 is hereby amended to read as follows:

8 2. The purchaser may, by written notice, cancel the contract 9 of purchase until midnight of the fifth calendar day following the 10 date of receipt of the documents described in subsection 1. If the 11 purchaser elects to cancel a contract pursuant to this subsection, 12 he may hand deliver the notice of cancellation to the unit's owner 13 or his authorized agent or mail the notice of cancellation by 14 prepaid United States mail to the unit's owner or his authorized 15 agent. Cancellation is without penalty, and all payments made by 16 the purchaser before cancellation must be refunded promptly. The 17 purchaser is not entitled to cancel the contract if the purchaser 18 has accepted a conveyance of the unit.

19 3. The association, within 10 days after receipt of a written

24 (b) A certificate containing the information necessary to enable 28 pursuant to subsection ~~[1-is-not]~~ 3, the unit's owner or his 29 authorized agent:

30 (a) Shall provide the documents and certificate to the 31 purchaser, and neither the unit's owner nor his authorized agent 32 is liable to the purchaser for any erroneous information provided by 33 the association and included in the documents and certificate.

34 ~~[3-]~~ (b) The association may charge the unit's owner a 35 reasonable fee to cover the cost of preparing the documents and 36 certificate. Such a fee must be based on the actual cost the 37 association incurs to fulfill the requirements of this section. The 38 association may not charge in excess of 25 cents per page for 39 copies of any of the documents or the certificate.

40 5. The Commission shall adopt regulations establishing the 41 maximum amount of the fee an association may charge for the 42 preparation of the documents and certificate pursuant to this 43 section.

44 6. Neither a purchaser nor the purchaser's interest in a unit is 45 liable for any unpaid assessment or fee greater than the amount set

1 forth in the documents and certificate prepared by the association. If 2 the association fails to furnish the documents and certificate within 3 the 10 days allowed by ~~[subsection 2.]~~ this section, the seller is not 4 liable for the delinquent assessment.

5 ~~[4.]~~ 7. Upon the request of a unit's owner, a purchaser to whom 6 the unit's owner has provided ~~[a]~~ the documents and certificate 7 pursuant to ~~[subsection 1.]~~ this section, or an authorized agent of the 8 unit's owner or the purchaser, the association shall make the entire 9 study of the reserves of the association which is required by NRS 10 116.31152 reasonably available for the unit's owner, purchaser or 11 authorized agent to inspect, examine, photocopy and audit. The 12 study must be made available at the business office of the 13 association or some other suitable location within the county where 14 the common-interest community is situated or, if it is situated in 15 more than one county, within one of those counties.

16 Sec. 77. NRS 116.41095 is hereby amended to read as 17 follows:

18 116.41095 The information statement required by NRS 19 116.4103 and 116.4109 must be in substantially the following form:

21 BEFORE YOU PURCHASE PROPERTY IN A 22 COMMON-INTEREST COMMUNITY
23 DID YOU KNOW . . .

24 1. YOU GENERALLY HAVE 5 DAYS TO TERMINATE
25 THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT?

26 If you received a public offering statement, you may give written 27 notice by mail or hand delivery cancelling the purchase agreement 28 until midnight of the fifth calendar day following the date you 29 signed the purchase agreement, unless you have personally 30 inspected the unit.

31 If you did not receive a public offering statement but received 32 documents pertaining to a homeowner's association or community 33 association, you may give written notice by mail or hand delivery 34 cancelling the purchase agreement until midnight of the fifth 35 calendar day following the date you received the documents.

36 2. YOU ARE AGREEING TO RESTRICTIONS ON HOW 37 YOU CAN USE YOUR PROPERTY?

38 These restrictions are contained in a document known as the 39 Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (C, C & R's)

40 ~~. [that should be provided for your review before making your~~ 41 ~~purchase.]~~ The C, C & R's become a part of the title to your 42 property. They bind you and every future owner of the property 43 whether or not you have read them or had them explained to you.

44 The C, C & R's, together with other "governing documents" (such 45 as association bylaws and rules and regulations), are intended to 1 preserve the character and value of properties in the community, but 2 may also restrict what you can do to improve or change your 3 property and limit how you use and enjoy your property. By 4 purchasing a property encumbered by C, C & R's, you are agreeing 5 to limitations that could affect your lifestyle and freedom of choice.

6 You should review the C, C & R's and other governing documents
7 before purchasing to make sure that these limitations and controls 8 are acceptable to you.

9 ~~[2-]~~ 3. YOU WILL HAVE TO PAY OWNERS' 10 ASSESSMENTS FOR AS LONG AS YOU OWN YOUR 11 PROPERTY?

12 As an owner in a common-interest community, you are responsible 13 for paying your share of expenses relating to the common elements, 14 such as landscaping, shared amenities and the operation of any 15 homeowner's association. The obligation to pay these assessments 16 binds you and every future owner of the property. Owners' fees are 17 usually assessed by the homeowner's association and due monthly.
18 You have to pay dues whether or not you agree with the way the 19 association is managing the property or spending the assessments.
20 The executive board of the association may have the power to 21 change and increase the amount of the assessment and to levy 22 special assessments against your property to meet extraordinary 23 expenses. In some communities, major components of the common 24 elements of the community such as roofs and private roads must be 25 maintained and replaced by the association. If the association is not 26 well managed or fails to maintain adequate reserves to repair, 27 replace and restore common elements, you may be required to pay 28 large, special assessments to accomplish these tasks.

29 ~~[3-]~~ 4. IF YOU FAIL TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS, 30 YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME?

31 If you do not pay these assessments when due, the association 32 usually has the power to collect them by selling your property in a 33 nonjudicial foreclosure sale. If fees become delinquent, you may 34 also be required to pay penalties and the association's costs and 35 attorney's fees to become current. If you dispute the obligation or its 36 amount, your only remedy to avoid the loss of your home may be to 37 file a lawsuit and ask a court to intervene in the dispute.

38 ~~[4-]~~ 5. YOU MAY BECOME A MEMBER OF A 39 HOMEOWNER'S ASSOCIATION THAT HAS THE POWER TO 40 AFFECT HOW YOU USE AND ENJOY YOUR PROPERTY?

41 Many common-interest communities have a homeowner's 42 association. In a new development, the association will usually be 43 controlled by the developer until a certain number of units have 44 been sold. After the period of developer control, the association may 45 be controlled by property owners like yourself who are elected by

1 homeowners to sit on an executive board and other boards and 2 committees formed by the association. The association, and its 3 executive board, are responsible for assessing homeowners for the 4 cost of operating the association and the common or shared 5 elements of the community and for the day to day operation and 6 management of the community. Because homeowners sitting on the 7 executive board and other boards and committees of the association 8 may not have the experience or professional background required to 9 understand and carry out the responsibilities of the association 10 properly, the association may hire professional managers to carry 11 out these responsibilities.

12 Homeowner's associations operate on democratic principles. Some 13 decisions require all homeowners to vote, some decisions are made 14 by the executive board or other boards or committees established by 15 the association or governing documents. Although the actions of the 16 association and its executive board are governed by state laws, the 17 C, C & R's and other documents that govern the common-interest 18 community, decisions made by these persons will affect your use 19 and enjoyment of your property, your lifestyle and freedom of 20 choice, and your cost of living in the community. You may not 21 agree with decisions made by the association or its governing bodies 22 even though the decisions are ones which the association is 23 authorized to make. Decisions may be made by a few persons on the 24 executive board or governing bodies that do not necessarily reflect 25 the view of the majority of homeowners in the community. If you do 26 not agree with decisions made by the association, its executive 27 board or other governing bodies, your remedy is typically to attempt 28 to use the democratic processes of the association to seek the 29 election of members of the executive board or other governing 30 bodies that are more responsive to your needs. If persons controlling 31 the association or its management are not complying with state laws 32 or the governing documents, your remedy is typically to seek to 33 mediate or arbitrate the dispute and, if mediation or arbitration is 34 unsuccessful, file a lawsuit and ask a court to resolve the dispute. In 35 addition to your personal cost in mediation or arbitration, or to 36 prosecute a lawsuit, you may be responsible for paying your share 37 of the association's cost in defending against your claim. ~~[There is 38 no government agency in this State that investigates or intervenes to 39 resolve disputes in homeowner's associations.~~

40 —5.] 6. YOU ARE REQUIRED TO PROVIDE PROSPECTIVE 41 BUYERS OF YOUR PROPERTY WITH INFORMATION
42 ABOUT LIVING IN YOUR COMMON-INTEREST
43 COMMUNITY?

44 The law requires you to provide to a prospective purchaser of your 45 property, before you enter into a purchase agreement, a copy of the 1 community's governing documents, including the C, C & R's, 2 association bylaws, and rules and regulations, as well as a copy of 3 this document. You are also required to provide a copy of the 4 association's current year-to-date financial statement, including, 5 without limitation, the most recent audited or reviewed financial 6 statement, a copy of the association's operating budget and 7 information regarding the amount of the monthly assessment for 8 common expenses, including the amount set aside as reserves for the 9 repair, replacement and restoration of common elements. You are 10 also required to inform prospective purchasers of any outstanding 11 judgments or lawsuits pending against the association of which you 12 are aware. You are also required to provide a copy of the minutes 13 from the most recent meeting of the homeowner's association or its 14 executive board. For more information regarding these 15 requirements, see Nevada Revised Statutes 116.4103 and 116.4109.

16 ~~6-1~~ 7. YOU HAVE CERTAIN RIGHTS REGARDING 17 OWNERSHIP IN A COMMON-INTEREST COMMUNITY THAT 18 ARE GUARANTEED YOU BY THE STATE?

19 Pursuant to provisions of chapter 116 of Nevada Revised Statutes, 20 you have the right:

21 (a) To be notified of all meetings of the association and its 22 executive board, except in cases of emergency.

23 (b) To attend and speak at all meetings of the association and its 24 executive board, except in some cases where the executive board is 25 authorized to meet in closed, executive session.

26 (c) To request a special meeting of the association upon petition 27 of at least 10 percent of the homeowners.

28 (d) To inspect, examine, photocopy and audit financial and other 29 records of the association.

30 (e) To be notified of all changes in the community's rules and 31 regulations and other actions by the association or board that affect 32 you.

33 ~~7-1~~ 8. QUESTIONS?

34 Although they may be voluminous, you should take the time to read 35 and understand the documents that will control your ownership of a 36 property in a common-interest community. You may wish to ask 37 your real estate professional, lawyer or other person with experience 38 to explain anything you do not understand. You may also request
39 assistance from the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest 40 Communities, Nevada Real Estate Division, at (telephone number).
