Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law establishes the Commission for Cultural Affairs, which advises the Department of Cultural Affairs on matters relating to the preservation and promotion of Nevada's cultural resources. (NRS 233C.200) Commission members currently are not entitled to be paid a salary, a per diem allowance or travel expenses. (NRS 233C.200) The Commission may use the interest earned on money in the Fund for the Preservation and Promotion of Cultural Resources, which the Commission administers, to pay for administrative services required by the Commission. (NRS 233C.200, 233C.230)

This bill allows Commission members to receive the same per diem allowance and travel expenses provided for state officers and employees generally while those members are attending meetings of the Commission or engaging in other activities related to the duties of the Commission. The Commission may pay for those expenses from interest earned on money in the Fund.

As part of its duties under existing law, the Commission for Cultural Affairs awards financial assistance to governmental entities and nonprofit corporations that are conducting projects that preserve or protect historical buildings that will be used to develop a network of cultural centers and activities. (NRS 233C.220) This financial assistance is derived from the proceeds of general obligation bonds issued by the State and interest earned on the deposit or investment of the money in the 20 Fund for the Preservation and Promotion of Cultural Resources. (NRS 233C.225, 21 233C.230)

22 This bill increases from $2 million to $3 million the maximum amount of such 23 financial assistance that may be granted by the Commission each year and,
