

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to motor vehicles; increasing the period during which a temporary permit for a short-term lessor to operate certain unregistered vehicles remains valid; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, short-term lessors of motor vehicles may apply to the Department of Motor Vehicles for a temporary permit to operate certain nonregistered vehicles in the State. Each permit expires after 20 days. (NRS 482.3965)

This bill increases to 30 days the period in which a temporary permit remains valid.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 482.3965 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.3965 1. A short-term lessor may apply to the Department for a temporary permit to operate a vehicle which:

(a) Is not subject to the provisions of NRS 482.390, 482.395 and 706.801 to 706.861, inclusive; and

(b) Is not currently registered in this State, another state or a foreign country.

2. The Department may, by regulation, establish a reasonable fee for such a permit. When a short-term lessor who has received a temporary permit issued pursuant to this section applies to register the vehicle, the Department shall credit against the amount otherwise due the amount paid by the short-term lessor for the temporary permit.

3. A permit must:

(a) Bear the date of its expiration in numerals of sufficient size to be plainly readable from a reasonable distance during daylight;

(b) Expire at 5 p.m. on the ~~20th~~ 30th day after its date of issuance;

(c) Be affixed to the vehicle in the manner prescribed by the Department; and

(d) Be removed and destroyed upon its expiration or the issuance of a certificate of registration for the vehicle, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 2. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2005.
