AN ACT relating to contractors; prohibiting certain contractors who assist in proving a constructional defect from repairing, causing the repair of or benefiting from the repair of the constructional defect; making a contractor who engages in any such act subject to disciplinary action; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law allows both the claimant and defendant in disputes over 2 constructional defects in a new or existing home to consult an expert to determine
3 the existence, nature or extent of a constructional defect. (NRS 40.600-40.695)
4 Existing law further provides the State Contractors' Board with regulatory authority
5 over contractors in this State and authorizes the Board to bring disciplinary action
6 against a contractor for certain actions. (Chapter 624 of NRS)

7 This bill prohibits a licensed contractor who testifies in an action concerning a 8 constructional defect or who otherwise provides an expert opinion in such an action 9 from repairing, causing to be repaired or receiving any benefit as the result of any 10 repair of the constructional defect which the contractor helped prove. This 11 prohibition applies regardless of whether the contractor received any compensation 12 for providing such testimony or other expert opinion. A contractor who engages in 13 an act prohibited by this bill is subject to disciplinary action by the State 14 Contractors' Board.
