

Senate Bill No. 71–Committee on Legislative Operations and Elections

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to the Public Employees' Benefits Program; eliminating the requirement that the annual salaries of the executive staff of the Public Employees' Benefits Program be approved by the Interim Retirement and Benefits Committee; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires that the Interim Retirement and Benefits Committee approve the annual salary of the Executive Officer, Quality Control Officer, Operations Officer, Accounting Officer, Information Technology Systems Officer and Executive Assistant employed by the Board of the Public Employees' Benefits Program. (NRS 287.0424, 287.0426) Because these are all positions in the unclassified service of the State, the annual salaries are also approved by the Legislature in the unclassified pay bill.

This bill would eliminate the requirement for approval of the annual salaries by the Interim Retirement and Benefits Committee.
