

Senate Bill No. 83—Senators Coffin, Amodei,
Care, Cegavske, Schneider and Beers

Joint Sponsors: Assemblymen Giunchigiani,
Carpenter, Manendo, McClain and Sherer

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to meetings of public bodies; requiring a public body to allow a person whose character, alleged misconduct, professional competence, or physical or mental health is being considered by the public body in a closed meeting to attend the meeting, have an attorney or other representative present at the meeting and present testimony and written evidence during the meeting; providing additional requirements relating to the required notice for such a meeting; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law prohibits a public body from holding a meeting to consider the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence, or physical or mental health of any person, except an elected member of a public body, unless it has given written notice to that person of the time and place of the meeting. (NRS 241.030, 241.031, 241.033)

This bill requires a public body to allow a person who is the subject of such a closed meeting of the public body to attend the closed meeting, have an attorney or other representative of his choosing present with him at the meeting and present testimony and written evidence during the meeting. The bill also requires the public body to include in the written notice that must be sent to the person who is the subject of such a closed meeting a statement of those rights and a list of the general topics concerning the person that will be considered at the meeting.
