

Assembly Bill No. 106—Select Committee on Corrections, Parole, and Probation

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to prisons; prohibiting a person from furnishing a portable telecommunications device to a prisoner; prohibiting a person from carrying a portable telecommunications device into an institution or a facility of the Department of Corrections; prohibiting a prisoner from possessing a portable telecommunications device; expanding the definition of “telecommunications device”; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Section 1 of this bill expands the definition of “telecommunications device” to include an apparatus associated with a device.

Section 2 of this bill makes it unlawful for a person to, without lawful authorization, knowingly furnish, attempt to furnish or aid or assist in furnishing or attempting to furnish a portable telecommunications device to a prisoner. A person who commits this crime is guilty of a category E felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 4 years, and a fine of up to $5,000. (NRS 193.130)

Section 2 also makes it unlawful for a person to, without lawful authorization, carry a portable telecommunications device into an institution or a facility of the Department of Corrections. A person who commits this crime is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not more than 6 months, or a fine of up to $1,000, or both. (NRS 193.150) Additionally, section 2 also makes it unlawful for a prisoner to, without lawful authorization, possess a portable telecommunications device. A prisoner who commits this crime is guilty of a category D felony, punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 4 years, and a fine of up to $5,000. (NRS 193.130) Section 2 also provides that this sentence is not subject to suspension or the granting of probation and that the sentence must be served consecutive to the term the prisoner is currently serving.
