AN ACT relating to the State Personnel System; providing that final decisions of the Employee-Management Committee are binding; authorizing the Committee to petition a court for enforcement of its binding decisions; adding the occupational group of positions requiring certification by the Peace Officers' Standards and Training Commission to the index of occupational groups in the classified service; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, the Employee-Management Committee performs various duties relating to the State Personnel System, including holding hearings and making final decisions for the adjustment of grievances. (NRS 284.073, 284.384) Unless the Budget Division of the Department of Administration determines that the resolution of a grievance by the Committee is not feasible based on its fiscal effects, section 2 of this bill provides that the decisions of the Committee are binding and authorizes the Committee to petition a court to enforce its binding decisions.

Existing law requires the Director of the Department of Personnel to prepare and maintain an index that categorizes all positions in the classified service of the State into broad occupational groups. (NRS 284.171) Section 1 of this bill adds the occupational group of positions requiring certification by the Peace Officers' Standards and Training Commission to the index.
