

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to civil actions; increasing the amount of the homestead exemption; providing that certain property of a judgment debtor is exempt from execution; increasing the amount of damages that may be awarded in certain tort actions brought against a governmental entity or its officers or employees; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that, with certain exceptions, in a civil action in which damages were awarded, the prevailing party in the action may obtain a writ of execution to enforce the judgment at any time before the judgment expires. (NRS 21.010) Existing law exempts certain property from such a writ of execution up to a specified monetary value. (NRS 21.090) In addition, existing law protects from a forced sale up to $350,000 in equity of certain property which is designated as a homestead by a person, except in certain circumstances. (NRS 115.005, 115.010)

Sections 2, 4 and 5 of this bill increase the amount of equity protected in homestead property from $350,000 to $550,000. Section 2 also expands the list of the property of a judgment debtor that is exempt from execution to include: (1) certain personal property not to exceed $1,000 in total value; (2) any tax refund the judgment debtor receives because of the federal earned income credit or any similar credit under a state law; and (3) all money reasonably deposited with a landlord by the judgment debtor to secure an agreement to rent or lease a dwelling that is used as the judgment debtor's primary residence in certain circumstances. (NRS 21.090) Sections 1 and 3 of this bill add those new exemptions to the list of exemptions provided in certain notices of execution. (NRS 21.075, 31.045) Sections 1 and 3 also revise the contents of a notice of writ of execution and a notice of writ of attachment to reflect the changes in the homestead exemption included in this bill.

Section 3.3 of this bill increases the limitation on the amount of damages that may be awarded in a tort action brought against a governmental entity or its officers or employees from $50,000 to $75,000. (NRS 41.035) Section 6 provides that this increase becomes effective on October 1, 2007, and expires by limitation on October 1, 2011. Section 3.5 of this bill increases that limitation on the amount of damages to $100,000 effective on October 1, 2011.
