

Assembly Bill No. 505—Committee on Elections, Procedures,
Ethics, and Constitutional Amendments

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to elections; changing the period for the filing of declarations, acceptances and certificates of candidacy for certain judicial offices; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides for a 10-day period for filing a declaration or acceptance of candidacy for an elective office in early May of an election year. (NRS 293.177)

This bill establishes a 10-day period for filing a declaration or acceptance of candidacy for candidates seeking judicial office, other than the office of municipal judge, which begins on the first Monday in January and ends on the second Friday after the first Monday in January of an election year. This bill does not change the period for filing declarations or acceptances of candidacy by nonjudicial candidates.

Existing law provides for a period beginning on the first Monday in April and ending on the first Friday in May of an election year during which 10 or more registered voters may file a certificate of candidacy designating any registered voter as a candidate for nomination for elective office. (NRS 293.180)

This bill establishes a period beginning on the first Monday in December of the year immediately preceding an election year and ending on the first Friday in January of an election year during which 10 or more registered voters may file a certificate of candidacy designating a registered voter as a candidate for nomination for judicial office, other than the office of municipal judge. This bill does not change the period for the filing of certificates of candidacy for nonjudicial candidates by registered voters.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 293.177 is hereby amended to read as follows:
293.177 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 293.165, a name may not be printed on a ballot to be used at a primary election unless the person named has filed a declaration of candidacy or an acceptance of candidacy, and has paid the fee required by NRS 293.193 not earlier than :

(a) For a candidate for judicial office, the first Monday in January of the year in which the election is to be held nor later than 5 p.m. on the second Friday after the first Monday in January; and

3. The address of a candidate which must be included in the declaration of candidacy or acceptance of candidacy pursuant to subsection 2 must be the street address of the residence where he actually, as opposed to constructively, resides in accordance with NRS 281.050, if one has been assigned. The declaration or acceptance of candidacy must not be accepted for filing if:

(a) The candidate's address is listed as a post office box unless a street address has not been assigned to his residence; or

(b) The candidate does not present to the filing officer:

(1) A valid driver's license or identification card issued by a governmental agency that contains a photograph of the candidate and the candidate's residential address; or

(2) A current utility bill, bank statement, paycheck, or document issued by a governmental entity, including, without limitation, a check, which indicates the candidate's name and residential address.

4. The filing officer shall retain a copy of the proof of identity and residency provided by the candidate pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 3. Such a copy:

(a) May not be withheld from the public; and

(b) Must not contain the social security number or driver's license or identification card number of the candidate.

5. By filing the declaration or acceptance of candidacy, the candidate shall be deemed to have appointed the filing officer for the office as his agent for service of process for the purposes of a proceeding pursuant to NRS 293.182. Service of such process must first be attempted at the appropriate address as specified by the candidate in the declaration or acceptance of candidacy. If the candidate cannot be served at that address, service must be made by personally delivering to and leaving with the filing officer duplicate copies of the process. The filing officer shall immediately send, by registered or certified mail, one of the copies to the candidate at his specified address, unless the candidate has designated in writing to the filing officer a different address for that purpose, in which case the filing officer shall mail the copy to the last address so designated.

6. If the filing officer receives credible evidence indicating that a candidate has been convicted of a felony and has not had his civil rights restored by a court of competent jurisdiction, the filing officer:

(a) May conduct an investigation to determine whether the candidate has been convicted of a felony and, if so, whether he has had his civil rights restored by a court of competent jurisdiction; and

(b) Shall transmit the credible evidence and the findings from such investigation to the Attorney General, if the filing officer is the Secretary of State, or to the district attorney, if the filing officer is a person other than the Secretary of State.

7. The receipt of information by the Attorney General or district attorney pursuant to subsection 6 must be treated as a challenge of a candidate pursuant to subsections 4 and 5 of NRS 293.182. If the ballots are printed before a court of competent jurisdiction makes a determination that a candidate has been convicted of a felony and has not had his civil rights restored by a court of competent jurisdiction, the filing officer must post a notice at each polling place where the candidate's name will appear on the ballot informing the voters that the candidate is disqualified from entering upon the duties of the office for which the candidate filed the declaration of candidacy or acceptance of candidacy.

Sec. 2. NRS 293.180 is hereby amended to read as follows:

293.180 1. Ten or more registered voters may ~~[- not earlier than the first Monday in April nor later than 5 p.m. on the first Friday in May,]~~ file a certificate of candidacy designating any registered voter as a candidate for ~~[his]~~ :

(a) Their major political party's nomination for any partisan elective office, or as a candidate for nomination for any nonpartisan office ~~H~~ other than a judicial office, not earlier than the first Monday in April of the year in which the election is to be held nor later than 5 p.m. on the first Friday in May; or

(b) Nomination for a judicial office, not earlier than the first Monday in December of the year immediately preceding the year in which the election is to be held nor later than 5 p.m. on the first Friday in January of the year in which the election is to be held.

2. When the certificate has been filed, the officer in whose office it is filed shall notify the person named in the certificate. If the person named in the certificate files an acceptance of candidacy and pays the required fee, as provided by law, he is a candidate in the primary election in like manner as if he had filed a declaration of candidacy.

~~2-1~~ 3. If a certificate of candidacy relates to a partisan office, all of the signers must be of the same major political party as the candidate designated.

Sec. 3. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.
