EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to the state personnel system; increasing the number of members of the Employee-Management Committee; requiring that certain persons in the classified service of the State be granted a leave of absence without pay to serve as full-time representatives in organizations representing state employees; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law creates the Employee-Management Committee consisting of three 2 members representing management positions within the Executive Department of 3 State Government and three members representing employees within the Executive 4 Department. (NRS 284.068) Section 1 of this bill adds a seventh member to the 5 Committee, to be jointly recommended by the other members and appointed by the 6 Governor. Section 1 also provides that the new member of the Committee serves as 7 the Chairman of the Committee. Section 2 of this bill provides for the salary and 8 per diem and travel expenses of the Chairman of the Committee.

9 Existing law authorizes a state employee to be granted a leave of absence
10 without pay in certain circumstances. (NRS 284.360) Section 3 of this bill requires 11 that a permanent, classified worker must be granted a leave of absence without pay 12 to serve as a full-time representative in an organization that represents state
13 employees. Section 3 also provides that when the person no longer serves as such a 14 representative, the person must be reinstated to the position he held before the leave 15 of absence, without loss of pay or certain other benefits.

10 Department of State Government, and three persons to serve as 11 alternates for them.

12 (c) One person recommended to the Governor by the members of the Committee appointed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b).

13 3. The representatives of employees and their alternates must 14 be selected from a list, supplied by state employees or one or more 15 state employees' groups, or any combination of these, containing 16 twice as many names as there are vacancies to be filled.

17 4. The members of the Committee appointed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection 2 must hold a vote to determine the person to recommend to the Governor pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection 2. If a majority of the members of the Committee do not agree upon the person to recommend, the Director shall request from the American Arbitration Association or its successor organization a list of seven arbitrators who specialize in labor disputes and who are residents of this State.
One member of the Committee appointed pursuant to paragraph
(a) of subsection 2 and one member of the Committee appointed pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 2 shall alternately strike one name from the list until the name of only one arbitrator remains, and that arbitrator must be recommended to the Governor to serve as a member of the Committee. The representative to strike the first name must be determined by the toss of a coin.

18 5. The person appointed by the Governor pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection 2 shall serve as Chairman of the Committee.

19 6. The members of the Committee and the alternates shall 20 serve for 2 years.

13 Sec. 3. NRS 284.360 is hereby amended to read as follows:

14 284.360 1. Any person holding a permanent position in the 15 classified service may be granted a leave of absence without pay.
16 Leave of absence may be granted to any person holding a position in 17 the classified service to permit acceptance of an appointive position 18 in the unclassified service. Leave of absence must be granted to any 19 person holding a position in the classified service to permit 20 acceptance of a position in the Legislative Branch during a regular 21 or special session of the Legislature, including a reasonable period 22 before and after the session if the entire period of employment in the 23 Legislative Branch is continuous.

24 2. If a person is granted a leave of absence without pay to 25 permit acceptance of an appointive position in the unclassified
26 service or a position in the Legislative Branch, any benefits earned 27 while he is in the:

28 (a) Classified service are retained and must be paid by the 29 employer in the classified service, whether or not the person returns 30 to the classified service.

31 (b) Unclassified service or employed by the Legislative Branch 32 are retained and must be paid by the appointing authority in the 33 unclassified service or by the Legislative Branch, if he does not 34 return to the classified service, or by the employer in the classified 35 service, if he returns to the classified service.

36 3. Any person in the unclassified service, except members of 37 the academic staff of the Nevada System of Higher Education, may 38 be granted by the appointing authority a leave of absence without 39 pay for a period not to exceed 6 months.

40 4. Officers and members of the faculty of the Nevada System
41 of Higher Education may be granted leaves of absence without pay 42 as provided by the regulations prescribed pursuant to subsection 2 of 43 NRS 284.345.

1 5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, a person in the 2 classified or unclassified service who:

3 (a) Is the natural parent of a child who is less than 6 months old;
4 or

5 (b) Has recently adopted a child,

6 → must be granted, upon request, a leave of absence without pay for 7 a period not to exceed 12 weeks. Such a request by natural parents 8 must be submitted at least 3 months before the date upon which the 9 requested leave will begin, unless a shorter notice is approved by the 10 employer. Such a request by adoptive parents must be submitted not 11 fewer than 2 working days after the parents receive notice of the 12 approval of the adoption. This subsection does not affect the rights 13 of an employee set forth in NRS 284.350 or 284.355.

14 6. The provisions of subsection 5 are effective only if the 15 Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, 29 U.S.C. §§ 2601 et seq., 16 or a subsequent federal law ceases to provide for a parental leave of 17 absence of at least 12 weeks.

18 7. Any person holding a permanent position in the classified 19 service must be granted a leave of absence without pay to serve as 20 a full-time representative of state employees in an organization
21 which represents state employees. When the person no longer 22 serves as a full-time representative in such an organization, the 23 person must be reinstated to his former position in the classified 24 service without loss of pay, tenure, status or benefits earned while 25 in the classified service.

26 Sec. 4. As soon as is practicable after July 1, 2007, the 27 members of the Employee-Management Committee appointed 28 pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection 1 of NRS 284.068 29 shall recommend a person to be appointed as a member of the 30 Committee to the Governor in accordance with the provisions of 31 NRS 284.068, as amended by section 1 of this act, and the Governor 32 shall appoint such member, whose term expires on the same date as 33 the other members of the Committee.

34 Sec. 5. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2007.
