AN ACT relating to motor vehicles; revising the provisions governing the crime of grand larceny of a motor vehicle; revising the provisions governing an offense involving a stolen vehicle; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, a person who commits grand larceny of a motor vehicle is guilty of a category C felony, unless the value of the motor vehicle involved in the grand larceny is proven to be $2,500 or more in which case the person is guilty of a category B felony. (NRS 205.228) Section 12 of this bill provides that a person who is convicted of grand larceny of a motor vehicle and who has previously been convicted of grand larceny of a motor vehicle or an attempt to commit grand larceny of a motor vehicle must not be released on probation or granted a suspension of his sentence. For purposes of determining whether a person has previously been convicted of grand larceny of a motor vehicle or an attempt to commit grand larceny of a motor vehicle, section 15 of this bill clarifies that offenses committed before October 1, 2007, must be included in such determination.

Under existing law, a person who commits an offense involving a stolen vehicle is guilty of a category C felony, unless the value of the stolen vehicle is $2,500 or more in which case the person is guilty of a category B felony. (NRS 205.273) Section 12.5 of this bill provides that a person who is convicted of an offense involving a stolen vehicle and who has previously been convicted of an offense involving a stolen vehicle or an attempt to commit an offense involving a stolen vehicle must not be released on probation or granted a suspension of his
