

Assembly Bill No. 625—Committee on Ways and Means

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to court programs; reducing the allocation of administrative assessments for use by the Supreme Court to provide an allocation for specialty court programs; eliminating the requirement that the Court Administrator submit a domestic violence report in 2009; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires that 60 percent of the proceeds from certain administrative assessments be distributed to the Court Administrator for use by the Supreme Court. (NRS 176.059) Section 1 of this bill reduces that allocation to 48 percent and requires the remaining 12 percent to be allocated for use by specialty court programs.

Existing law requires the Court Administrator to submit to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau biennially a written report concerning the effectiveness of counseling programs for persons who commit domestic violence. (NRS 1.360) Sections 2 and 3 of this bill eliminate this requirement after 2007.
