

Assembly Bill No. 72—Assemblymen Gansert, Allen, Anderson, Carpenter, Cobb, Conklin, Gerhardt, Goedhart, Horne, Mabey, Manendo, Mortenson, Ocegüera, Ohrenschall and Segerblom

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to crimes; specifying that the crime of luring a child includes luring a person believed to be a child; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law prohibits a person from luring a child who is less than 16 years of age and who is at least 5 years younger than the person. (NRS 201.560) This bill amends existing law to specify that a person also violates this provision when he knowingly contacts or communicates with or attempts to contact or communicate with someone whom he believes to be a child less than 16 years of age and at least 5 years younger than he is with the intent to persuade or lure the person believed to be a child to engage in sexual conduct.

A violation of the amendatory provisions of this bill constitutes the crime of luring a child and is considered a "sexual offense" or "sexual offense against a child" in certain circumstances for the purposes of several provisions of existing law. Such provisions include, without limitation, provisions requiring registration of sex offenders, community notification of sex offenders, lifetime supervision of sex offenders and special restrictions and conditions concerning parole of sex offenders as well as provisions specifically authorizing disciplinary action against a teacher or other licensed employee of a school convicted of the crime of luring a child. (NRS 62C.120, 62F.100, 62H.010, 62H.220, 176.0931, 176.133, 178.5698, 179.245, 179.460, 179A.073, 179A.280, 179D.410, 179D.620, 200.366, 213.107, 213.1214, 213.1245, 213.1255, 213.1258, 391.311, 391.314, 391.330) Thus, for example, NRS 176.0931 would require a court to impose lifetime supervision upon a person convicted of luring or attempting to lure a person whom he believed to be a child with the intent to persuade or lure the person believed to be a child to engage in sexual conduct. Further, NRS 213.1258 would provide that if the State Board of Parole Commissioners grants parole to a person convicted of luring or attempting to lure a person whom he believed to be a child through the use of a computer, system or network with the intent to persuade or lure the person believed to be a child to engage in sexual conduct, the Board, under certain circumstances, must impose as a condition of the parole that the parolee not own or use a computer. In addition, NRS 391.330 would provide that a conviction for luring or attempting to lure a person believed to be a child with the intent to persuade or lure that person to engage in sexual conduct constitutes grounds for the State Board of Education to suspend or revoke the license of a teacher, administrator or any other licensed employee.
