EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~fornitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to financial institutions; requiring certain financial institutions to provide training to certain officers and employees concerning identifying the suspected exploitation of older persons and vulnerable persons; requiring certain officers and employees who receive such training to report the suspected or known exploitation of an older or vulnerable person; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Sections 4-13 of this bill require certain financial institutions to provide
2 training to certain officers and employees concerning the identification and
3 reporting of the exploitation of older persons and vulnerable persons. "Older 4 persons" are defined in existing law as persons who are 60 years of age or older.
5 (NRS 200.5092) "Vulnerable persons" are defined in existing law as persons who 6 are 18 years of age or older who: (1) suffer from a condition of physical or mental 7 incapacitation because of a developmental disability, organic brain damage or 8 mental illness; or (2) have one or more physical or mental limitations that restrict 9 the ability of the person to perform the normal activities of daily living. (NRS 10 200.5092) Section 10 of this bill specifies which officers and employees must 11 receive the training, when the training must be provided and the content of the 12 training. Section 10 further requires those officers and employees to report

* A B 8 7 R 3 *

incidents that reasonably appear to be exploitation of an older or vulnerable person. Section 11 of this bill requires each financial institution to designate a person to whom such reports must be made. The person so designated is then responsible for determining when a formal report must be reported to the appropriate agency.

Sections 15-22 of this bill add similar provisions to the chapter governing savings and loan associations. (Chapter 673 of NRS) Sections 25-32 of this bill add similar provisions to the chapter governing thrift companies. (Chapter 677 of NRS) Sections 35-42 of this bill add similar provisions to the chapter governing credit unions. (Chapter 678 of NRS)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 2. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 3. Chapter 657 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 4 to 12, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 4. As used in sections 4 to 12, inclusive, of this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in sections 5 to 9, inclusive, of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 5. “Designated reporter” means a person designated by a financial institution to receive reports of known or suspected exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person pursuant to section 11 of this act.

Sec. 6. “Exploitation” has the meaning ascribed to it in subsection 2 of NRS 200.5092.

Sec. 7. “Older person” has the meaning ascribed to it in subsection 5 of NRS 200.5092.

Sec. 8. “Reasonable cause to believe” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 200.50925.

Sec. 9. “Vulnerable person” has the meaning ascribed to it in subsection 7 of NRS 200.5092.

Sec. 10. 1. Each financial institution shall provide training concerning the identification and reporting of the suspected exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person to each officer and employee of the financial institution who:

(a) May, as part of his regular duties for the financial institution, come into direct contact with an older person or vulnerable person; or

(b) May review or approve the financial documents, records or transactions of an older person or vulnerable person in connection with providing financial services to the older person or vulnerable person.

* A B 8 7 R 3 *

2. The training required pursuant to subsection 1 must be provided as soon as reasonably practicable, but not later than 6 months after the officer or employee is employed by the financial institution.

3. The training required pursuant to subsection 1 must include, without limitation:

(a) An explanation of the conduct which constitutes exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person;

(b) The manner in which exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person may be recognized;

(c) Information concerning the manner in which reports of exploitation are investigated; and

(d) Instruction concerning when and how to report known or suspected exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person.

4. An officer or employee who has observed or has knowledge of an incident that is directly related to a transaction or matter which is within his scope of practice and which reasonably appears to be exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person shall report the known or suspected exploitation to the designated reporter.

Sec. 11. 1. Each financial institution shall designate a person or persons to whom an officer or employee of the financial institution must report known or suspected exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person.

2. If an officer or employee reports known or suspected exploitation of an older person to a designated reporter and, based on such a report or based on his own observations or knowledge, the designated reporter knows or has reasonable cause to believe that an older person has been exploited, the designated reporter shall:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, report the known or suspected exploitation of the older person to:

(1) The local office of the Aging Services Division of the Department of Health and Human Services;

(2) A police department or sheriff's office;

(3) The county's office for protective services, if one exists in the county where the suspected action occurred; or

(4) A toll-free telephone service designated by the Aging Services Division of the Department of Health and Human Services; and

(b) Make such a report as soon as reasonably practicable.

3. If the designated reporter knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the exploitation of the older person involves an act or omission of the Aging Services Division, another division of the Department of Health and Human Services or a law enforcement

1 agency, the designated reporter shall make the report to an agency
2 other than the one alleged to have committed the act or omission.

3 4. If an officer or employee reports known or suspected
4 exploitation of a vulnerable person to a designated reporter and,
5 based on such a report or based on his own observations or
6 knowledge, the designated reporter knows or has reasonable cause
7 to believe that a vulnerable person has been exploited, the
8 designated reporter shall:

9 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, report the
10 known or suspected exploitation of the vulnerable person to a law
11 enforcement agency; and

12 (b) Make such a report as soon as reasonably practicable.

13 5. If the designated reporter knows or has reasonable cause
14 to believe that the exploitation of the vulnerable person involves
15 an act or omission of a law enforcement agency, the designated
16 reporter shall make the report to a law enforcement agency other
17 than the one alleged to have committed the act or omission.

18 6. In accordance with the provisions of subsection 3 of NRS
19 239A.070, in making a report pursuant to this section, a
20 designated reporter may:

21 (a) Disclose any facts or information that form the basis of the 22 determination that the designated reporter knows or has
23 reasonable cause to believe that an older person or vulnerable
24 person has been exploited, including, without limitation, the
25 identity of any person believed to be involved in the exploitation of 26 the older person or vulnerable person; and

27 (b) Provide any financial records or other documentation
28 relating to the exploitation of the older person or vulnerable
29 person.

30 7. An officer, employee and the designated reporter are
31 entitled to the immunity from liability set forth in NRS 200.5096
32 for making a report in good faith.

33 Sec. 12. (Deleted by amendment.)

34 Sec. 13. NRS 657.150 is hereby amended to read as follows:

35 657.150 As used in NRS 657.150 to 657.210, inclusive, and

1 (a) An explanation of the conduct which constitutes
2 exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person;

3 (b) The manner in which exploitation of an older person or
4 vulnerable person may be recognized;

5 (c) Information concerning the manner in which reports of
6 exploitation are investigated; and

7 (d) Instruction concerning when and how to report known or
8 suspected exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person.

9 4. An officer or employee who has observed or has knowledge
10 of an incident that is directly related to a transaction or matter
11 which is within his scope of practice and which reasonably
12 appears to be exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person
13 shall report the known or suspected exploitation to the designated 14 reporter.

15 Sec. 32. 1. Each licensee shall designate a person or 16 persons to whom an officer or employee of the licensee must 17 report known or suspected exploitation of an older person or 18 vulnerable person.

19 2. If an officer or employee reports known or suspected
20 exploitation of an older person to a designated reporter and, based 21 on such a report or based on his own observations or knowledge,
22 the designated reporter knows or has reasonable cause to believe
23 that an older person has been exploited, the designated reporter 24 shall:

25 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, report the 26 known or suspected exploitation of the older person to:

27 (1) The local office of the Aging Services Division of the
28 Department of Health and Human Services;

29 (2) A police department or sheriff's office;

30 (3) The county's office for protective services, if one exists
31 in the county where the suspected action occurred; or

32 (4) A toll-free telephone service designated by the Aging
33 Services Division of the Department of Health and Human
34 Services; and

35 (b) Make such a report as soon as reasonably practicable.

36 3. If the designated reporter knows or has reasonable cause
37 to believe that the exploitation of the older person involves an act
38 or omission of the Aging Services Division, another division of the 39 Department of Health and Human Services or a law enforcement
40 agency, the designated reporter shall make the report to an agency
41 other than the one alleged to have committed the act or omission.

42 4. If an officer or employee reports known or suspected
43 exploitation of a vulnerable person to a designated reporter and,
44 based on such a report or based on his own observations or
45 knowledge, the designated reporter knows or has reasonable cause

1 to believe that a vulnerable person has been exploited, the
2 designated reporter shall:

3 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, report the
4 known or suspected exploitation of the vulnerable person to a law
5 enforcement agency; and

6 (b) Make such a report as soon as reasonably practicable.

7 5. If the designated reporter knows or has reasonable cause
8 to believe that the exploitation of the vulnerable person involves
9 an act or omission of a law enforcement agency, the designated
10 reporter shall make the report to a law enforcement agency other
11 than the one alleged to have committed the act or omission.

12 6. In accordance with the provisions of subsection 3 of NRS
13 239A.070, in making a report pursuant to this section, a
14 designated reporter may:

15 (a) Disclose any facts or information that form the basis of the 16 determination that the designated reporter knows or has
17 reasonable cause to believe that an older person or vulnerable
18 person has been exploited, including, without limitation, the
19 identity of any person believed to be involved in the exploitation of 20 the older person or vulnerable person; and

21 (b) Provide any financial records or other documentation
22 relating to the exploitation of the older person or vulnerable
23 person.

24 7. An officer, employee and the designated reporter are
25 entitled to the immunity from liability set forth in NRS 200.5096
26 for making a report in good faith.

27 Sec. 33. (Deleted by amendment.)

28 Sec. 34. Chapter 678 of NRS is hereby amended by adding 29 thereto the provisions set forth as sections 35 to 43, inclusive, of this 30 act.

31 Sec. 35. As used in sections 35 to 43, inclusive, of this act,
32 unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined
33 in sections 36 to 40, inclusive, of this act have the meanings
34 ascribed to them in those sections.

35 Sec. 36. “Designated reporter” means a person designated by 36 a credit union to receive reports of known or suspected
37 exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person pursuant to 38 section 42 of this act.

2 in subsection 7 of NRS 200.5092.

3 Sec. 41. 1. Each credit union shall provide training
4 concerning the identification and reporting of the suspected
5 exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person to each
6 employee of the credit union who:

7 (a) May, as part of his regular duties for the credit union,
8 come into direct contact with an older person or vulnerable
9 person; or

10 (b) May review or approve the financial documents, records or 11 transactions of an older person or vulnerable person in 12 connection with providing financial services to the older person or
13 vulnerable person.

14 2. The training required pursuant to subsection 1 must be
15 provided as soon as reasonably practicable, but not later than 6
16 months after the employee is employed by the credit union.

17 3. The training required pursuant to subsection 1 must 18 include, without limitation:

19 (a) An explanation of the conduct which constitutes
20 exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person;

21 (b) The manner in which exploitation of an older person or
22 vulnerable person may be recognized;

23 (c) Information concerning the manner in which reports of
24 exploitation are investigated; and

25 (d) Instruction concerning when and how to report known or
26 suspected exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person.

27 4. An employee who has observed or has knowledge of an 28 incident that is directly related to a transaction or matter which is 29 within his scope of practice and which reasonably appears to be 30 exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person shall report
31 the known or suspected exploitation to the designated reporter.

32 Sec. 42. 1. Each credit union shall designate a person or 33 persons to whom an employee of the credit union must report
34 known or suspected exploitation of an older person or vulnerable
35 person.

36 2. If an employee reports known or suspected exploitation of 37 an older person to a designated reporter and, based on such a 38 report or based on his own observations or knowledge, the 39 designated reporter knows or has reasonable cause to believe that 40 an older person has been exploited, the designated reporter shall:

41 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, report the
42 known or suspected exploitation of the older person to:

43 (1) The local office of the Aging Services Division of the
44 Department of Health and Human Services;

45 (2) A police department or sheriff's office;

1 (3) The county's office for protective services, if one exists
2 in the county where the suspected action occurred; or

3 (4) A toll-free telephone service designated by the Aging
4 Services Division of the Department of Health and Human
5 Services; and

6 (b) Make such a report as soon as reasonably practicable.

7 3. If the designated reporter knows or has reasonable cause
