ASSEMBLY CONCURRENT RESOLUTION—Commemorating the 100th anniversary of the incorporation of the City of Yerington.

WHEREAS, On March 14, 1907, Governor John Sparks signed into law a bill that incorporated Yerington as a city, defined its boundaries and established its governmental structure, and March 14, 2007, marks the 100th anniversary of that event; and

WHEREAS, The origins of Yerington can be traced back to the 1850s when N. H. A. “Hock” Mason settled in the valley that now bears his name, and in 1871, the Mason Valley Post Office was established in the town near the Walker River; and

WHEREAS, The town was referred to by many as “Pizen Switch,” which folklore traces to the inferior grade of whiskey (tasted like poison or “pizen”) sold in a local saloon that was constructed of willow branches (“switches”), and in 1879, the town was rechristened “Greenfield,” but the name of the local post office was not officially changed; and

WHEREAS, In 1880, Henry Marvin Yerington, the General Superintendent of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad, founded the Carson and Colorado Railroad that soon extended from Mound House through Dayton, Fort Churchill, Wabuska in northern Mason Valley and Schurz to places farther south in both Nevada and California; and

WHEREAS, By 1894, the residents officially changed the names of the town and its post office to Yerington, in an unsuccessful effort to flatter Henry Yerington so that he would extend his rail line 12 miles south of Wabuska through the town named after him; and

WHEREAS, The county seat of Lyon County was moved from Dayton to the thriving and growing City of Yerington in 1911; and

WHEREAS, Joseph E. Dini, Jr., the longest serving Assemblyman and Assembly Speaker in Nevada history and the State's first and only Speaker Emeritus, is a Yerington native who continues to reside in his hometown and is just one of many prominent Nevada residents from Yerington; now, therefore, be it
