THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. 1. The Lander County School District may transfer to the Austin Historical Society, without consideration, all the interest of the Lander County School District in the building and real property commonly referred to as the Old Austin Elementary School located in Austin, Nevada.

2. If the building and real property are transferred to the Austin Historical Society pursuant to this act:

(a) The Austin Historical Society:

(1) Shall, to the extent practicable, use the building and real property in a manner that maintains the historic value of the building and real property, unless the Board of Trustees of the Lander County School District authorizes another use by the Austin Historical Society.

(2) May transfer the building and real property to another person with the consent of the Board of Trustees of the Lander County School District. Such a transfer may be made without a restriction on the use of the building and real property by the successor in title, unless the Board of Trustees of the Lander County School District requires such a restriction.

(b) The deed from the Lander County School District to the Austin Historical Society must include a restriction stating that the transfer is subject to the provisions of this act and any amendments to this act whenever enacted.

3. The provisions of chapter 393 of NRS do not apply to a transfer of the building and real property to the Austin Historical Society pursuant to this act.

Sec. 2. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.
