

Senate Bill No. 150–Committee on
Human Resources and Education

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to services to aging persons; expanding the jurisdiction of advocates for residents of facilities for long-term care to include homes for individual residential care; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

The Nevada Commission on Aging and the Aging Services Division of the Department of Health and Human Services oversee the provision of certain services to aging persons in this State. (Chapter 427A of NRS) The Chief of the Division may appoint employees of the Division to serve as advocates for persons who are 60 years of age or older and who reside in facilities for long-term care. The advocates perform certain duties related to the well-being of the residents of those facilities, including investigation of complaints and periodic visits to the facilities. (NRS 427A.125-427A.165) This bill expands the jurisdiction of the advocates to homes for individual residential care, which are licensed by the Health Division of the Department. (NRS 449.249-449.2496)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN
